

Round Square International Conference, Kenya

Nairobi, Kenya
October 8-14, 2023

The theme for the 55th Round Square International Conference "The New Africa " will allow students to explore many ways in which the continent has evolved and is defining its position in the 21st Century.

The conference will come together for the Opening and Closing days, while the Adventure, Service and Democracy days will provide smaller group opportunities on a rotation of activities across the middle three days of the conference. The conference is hosted at the two Brookhouse campuses, in Karen and Runda. The Adventure Day will feature a night under African skies, camping in the Nairobi National Park, with wildlife game drives and an environmental conservation focus.

The host school, Brookhouse, is a co-educational day and boarding school for children aged 2 – 19. The unique Karen campus is situated on a vast 15-acre site, adjacent to rolling hills and the exquisite sites of Nairobi National Park while The Runda School is set on extensive landscaped grounds in the northern suburbs of Nairobi overlooking the Evergreen Park Lake. Brookhouse families will provide homestay accommodation and a first-hand experience of African hospitality for student delegates.

RLC is pleased to have an opportunity to send five delegates to this conference.

International conferences

Students and teachers in Round Square schools—there are 200 worldwide—have the opportunity to take part in age-appropriate local and global conferences that bring them together with peers from different countries to share perspectives, debate topical issues, forge friendships, support local communities, and develop international understanding.
