

Overcoming Anxiety or Fearful Circumstances

It seems as though in our culture today that we are under a constant bombardment of bad news and fear of practically everything. Bad news sells and negativity oozes out everywhere.

It all started with Adam and Eve in the garden when Satan took God's Word and twisted it, misleading Adam and Eve.

Today is no different. We are bombarded with lies and misleading information. We must be very careful to stand on the Word of God and believe it!

King David was hunted by Saul for years. David constantly took things to God and asked for His direction. He spent a lot of private time with God (being intimate with God). We too should follow David's example of intimacy with God in our own lives.

There are many promises of God that we can dwell on today to help us as to overcome anxiety and fearful circumstances as we spend time with God. Here are a few to meditate on.

Psalm 139:8-10 If I ascend into heaven, you are there. If I make my bed in hell, behold you are there. If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the utter most parts of the sea, even there you hand shall hold me.

Isaiah 41:10 Fear not, for I am with you, Be not dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.

Phil 4:6-7 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God, and the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

-Blaise Weidenborner

- GIVING BOX -

Though we do not "take an offering" during our services, we do provide a way to give financially to Calvary Chapel.

There is a box for this purpose located in the foyer

You can also give through our website
