HE KNOWS YOUR NAME!

"In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of His robe filled the temple." ~ Isaiah 6:1

In ancient times when there were many kings, the robe was a symbol of power and authority. The longer the train on the robe, the greater the king.

In 1953 when Queen Elizabeth II of England was crowned, she required eight maidens of honor to carry the eighteen foot train on her robe. While much good can be said about Queen Elizabeth, her power and majesty do not compare to the King of Kings! The train of her robe would never come close to filling the entire temple!

The fact that God's robe filled the temple means that there is room for no others in His temple -- He and He alone rules!

He is the ultimate Authority, ultimate Ruler, ultimate Creator. His power, majesty, perfection, and splendor are incomparable!

And here's a most humbling fact: This King, the Lord God, the most majestic of all kings, knows your name! He knew you before you were formed in your mother's womb. You are His child, loved beyond measure by the Most High God!

Rejoice!
