

CALVARY CHAPEL
BEMIDJI

Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean,
but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox.

A PRODUCTIVE MESS

Proverbs 14:4

Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant crops come by the strength of the ox.

We often think that our best life would be one that is neat, clean and orderly. We wish our friendships, family life, and work would be free of complications and in good order and often pray accordingly. We want the path our life takes to be a straight line going from point "A" to point "B". But for all our efforts and prayers, our lives rarely turn out like that.

In fact, much the opposite, life is honestly pretty messy. Relationships can feel like a tangled up ball of fishing line. Work can feel like slogging through knee high mud. And our path is filled with so many twists and peaks and valleys, it is hard to know where it is all going. It's all an absolute mess...

But it is a productive mess. And instead of trying to run from it or hide the mess from the people around us out of fear... perhaps it is time to just own it. To say, "My life is a mess but by the grace of God, abundant crops will come from the mess that I am in."

It is time for me to believe that God is able and will use even the dirtiest and most shameful things in my life to bring about the most glorious results. To trust His wisdom when he hands me the shovel and sets me in the stable. Because I know the harvest is just around the corner.

Alex Robinson, Pastor.

- GIVING BOX -

Though we do not "take an offering" during our services, we do provide a way to give financially to Calvary Chapel Bemidji. There is a box for this purpose located in the foyer, or you can also give through our website.
