chat from the Chair

e recently took a few days out to the West Country – Blue Anchor Bay which is close to Dunster and Minehead. We stayed in an old pub called The Smugglers which is over Four hundred years old and has had an extremely varied history!

Based on the edge of Exmoor, we were able to explore this beautiful

Now, I want to thank Phil for stepping into the breach at our September meeting. The original speaker was unable to come at the last minute and fortunately Phil was willing to bring his 2024 programme forward – thank you again Phil—a cheque for £50 has been sent to Parkinson's UK following your most interesting talk.

Cathy Airey will shortly be contacting those interested in joining 'The Gardening Group' (now she has moved house). She wishes to meet up, explore and discuss what interests members will be seeking. Cathy was willing and has now been co-opted on to the Committee —many thanks Cathy.

Our guest Speaker for Thursday, 19th October will be Bobbie Darbyshire with her informative talk – WHERE DO NOV-ELISTS GET THEIR IDEAS FROM? See her short preview in this Newsletter.

I look forward to meeting up with you on the 19th October.

Regards

BARBARA

Our last speaker

here was an air of surprise amongst the u3a audience as Phil Rowling stepped up to the mike to deliver his March talk six months ahead of schedule; with some obviously disappointed members realising that their virtual "walk" through The Savill Garden with its beautiful planting and interesting collections had disappeared like an early frost on a September lawn (when did we last see one of those?).

A late substitution by team manager Barbara, doing her best in trying circumstances following the late withdrawal by the advertised speaker and a glaring hole in the Thursday programme; kept most of her balls in the air whilst Phil padded out the afternoon with some smoke and mirrors and a history lesson starting with Johannes Gutenberg and ending with our Seattle favourites Gates and Allen.

In fifty minutes or so 600 years of history, roughly equivalent to the reign of the Plantagenets to the Windsors, is perhaps a little ambitious even for Phil but he soldiered on bringing in some personal history for light relief, one could almost say comic, if considering his abrupt departure from school in 1956 and it was good to recall the John Bull Printing Outfit (lots of hands went up for ownership) and the Eagle Comic.

I'll give him the benefit of the doubt and say that we must all now be familiar with Upper and Lower Case and the differences between Letterpress and Lithography; and that he bears a remarkable likeness to his father pictured above.

Catching up with the Groups

MOTO

MOTO first! Irene both suggested and hosted a Macmillan coffee morning and Bring & Buy stall, an enjoyable and well attended event which raised £18, everyone was very generous. The remaining items on the Sales Table were taken to the Phyllis Tuckwell Hospice shop in Camberley. (This charity had cared for and supported four of our MOTO members in the past). Many thanks to Irene for her brilliant idea and for all her hard work.

In October we will be having Sunday lunch at The Cricketers in Yateley.

The Book Group

aybe by the time you read this month's review the clocks would have gone back and we will be hurtling towards winter and the winter equinox. Soon I will be re-commencing feeding the birds in the garden. I stop for the summer based on my theory that there is enough free wild food available for them.

But now onto book matters, October's read is *I'll Keep you*Safe by Peter May. Niamh and Ruairidh (translates to Rory, apparently!) own the Hebridean company Ranish Tweed, bit like Harris Tweed but softer and more luxurious. Whilst on a trip to Paris with his wife, Rory and his maybe lover get blown up! Poor Niamh then begins to look back on her life with Rory to try and discover (1) his affair and (2) who held a grudge against her husband. The police rule out terrorism, so is it murder?

Niamh looks back on her life in Scotland with Rory. Meeting him when she was very young and both of them setting up the company Ranish Tweed. If you like a book with plenty of description about life and the countryside on the Outer Hebrides then this is the book for you. The New York Times said "Peter May is a writer I would follow to the ends of the earth" Not certain I would be that enthusiastic, I enjoyed the book immensely. I'll Keep You Safe has a very surprising ending and one I was not expecting!

Next meeting is Thursday 26th October at 2pm.

Walking Together

Some input from the Walking Together Group

e had a high number of members away and unavailable in September so Romy decided to cancel her walk which she had agreed to lead when no one else volunteered.

The October walk will be led by Min starting at Finchampstead Church and pausing at the California Country Park café for refreshments towards the end.

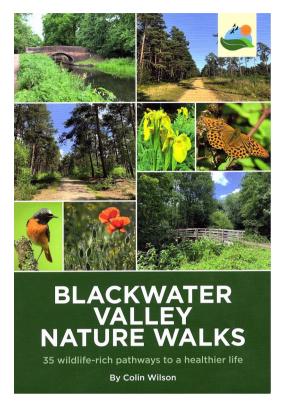

We'll meet in the Potley Hill School car park at 0930 for 0945 start as usual.

Out and About 1

Back in June my youngest daughter bought me Colin Wilson's Blackwater Valley Nature Walks and my Sunday walks changed considerably. Previously we had been playing a simple game with venues such as Wildmoor Nature Reserve and South Hill Park more or less under one hour – 40 minutes to be accurate. Mr Wilson's excellent publication opened our horizons and with our increasing endurance we took on Grades: 1 very easy, 2 Moderate and 3 Harder.

However, as is the nature of the beast we became fixated on Walk No. 33: Darby Green, Yateley Common, Hawley Common and Shepherd Meadows. This involved a start at the Darby Green Centre and walking via the footbridge over the Reading Road to Yateley Common and up to the A30 and beyond. The whole walk as printed is a 3 difficult and the distance is 8 miles.

That was well out of our range at the time so we decided to split the walks into area as we found out early on how ignorant we were of our immediate local area.

We have subsequently spent eleven Sunday's walking parts of the walk in detail especially Hawley Common and Minley Woods. We were amazed how frequently we came upon vistas of extraordinary delight.

A few weeks ago we found Foxlease Minley Manor Farm now mouldering beneath a cocoon on brambles and other invasive plants. We have researched the buildings and found an interesting story of deliberate decay and dereliction.

Out and About in Turkey

Two of my favourite things to do in Turkey are a visit to the local market and an early swim as the sun creeps over the horizon. I love to see the huge mounds of fresh, seasonal produce in the market alongside some of the more specialised stalls such as the honey stall with fresh combs, and the young man selling wooden spoons and chopping boards. Their inflation rate is shockingly high but visitors are cushioned from the worst of this as the exchange rate is also high MIN

Out and About 3

One of my favourite things to do in Eastbourne is an early morning swim as the sun creeps over the pier.

Nominees for the Idiot of the World Award (Part 2)

Number Three Idiot

Early this year, some Boeing employees on the airfield decided to steal a life raft from one of the 747s. They were successful in getting it out of the plane and home. Shortly after they took it for a float on the river, they noticed a Coast Guard helicopter coming toward them. It turned out that the chopper was homing in on the emergency locator beacon that activated when the raft was inflated.

They are no longer employed at Boeing.

Number Four Idiot

A motorist was unknowingly caught in an automated speed trap that measured his speed using radar and photographed his car. He later received in the mail a ticket for $40 and a photo of his car. Instead of payment, he sent the police department a photograph of $40. Several days later, he received a letter from the police that contained another picture, this time of handcuffs. He immediately mailed in his $40.

Wise guy ... But you're still nominated.

More from Martin

y Club lunch was on last Saturday, We meet up each year through. I had to catch the train to Ascot, And change there for Waterloo.

A lot of people were waiting, all wearing rugby shirts this year. Bath was playing Harlequins, At Twickenham it was clear.

The train was really crowded,
With blokes of every size.
I had to stand till Richmond!
Which wasn't very wise.
I'd put on my posh shoes, you see,
And hadn't broken them in.
By Waterloo I knew it!
I had a long trip home, coming.

I had a lovely time at luncheon,
With my pals from long ago.
With beers and vino sinking
And tales that always flow.
Somehow my feet felt better,
As I wobbled back to the train.
I changed again at Ascot
And got home without more pain.

It proves that sometimes meeting, Yer old mates, does a world of good, It can even cure stupidity. I always knew it would! Now what is this all about?
Yesterday 'twere going good,
Now it's not working as it should!
The scanning bit has stopped work!
Is it just a minor quirk?
It needs a WIA driver says the screen.
Whatever's that? What do they mean?
Technical stuff just aint my forte
Never was, since I were forty!
