Judy's life exemplified this prayer she loved:

Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace
Where there is hatred, let me sow love
Where there is injury, pardon
Where there is doubt, faith
Where there is despair, hope
Where there is darkness, light
And where there is sadness, joy

O Divine Master, grant that I may not So much seek to be consoled as to console
To be understood, as to understand
To be loved, as to love
For it is in giving that we receive
And it's in pardoning that we are pardoned
And it's in dying that we are born to Eternal life
Amen

Interment will immediately follow at Quiet Rest Cemetery

A reception will be held at the Story Centennial Park following the burial

Judy was born in Gillette, Wyoming on April 6, 1929 to Tobias and Nellie Frey. She was youngest of four Frey children; her older siblings were Bernice, Lou, and Phil. Judy grew up and attended school in Rozet, Wyoming. She moved with her parents to Monarch in 1944 and graduated from Sheridan High School in 1947. After high school, Judy taught elementary school for two years in area country schools. She married the love of her life, Floyd “Sonny” Hoyt, Jr. on April 23, 1949. Judy and Sonny worked hard raising their children and building a successful ranching business. They ranched in the Story and Arvada areas, retiring to Story in the late 1990s. Judy was a member of Our Lady of the Pines Catholic Church since 1961 and served as one of the first EMTs in the Story Volunteer Fire Department. She loved her family, helping Sonny with ranch work, working in her huge gardens, socializing with her many friends and helping anyone in need in her family and community. She was a lifelong and devout Catholic.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, siblings, husband and son, Larry. She is survived by her sons, Dave (Barb) of Leiter and John (Mari) of Story, her daughter Chris Legler of Story and her daughter-in-law Rhonda Hoyt of New Braunfels, Texas. She is also survived by 10 grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. The family wishes to thank the loving and caring staff of Green House Living – Founders House, for their six years of care for Judy; they loved her and she loved them.
