

FOR RENT

Stay Sthlm gives people a home away from home, by redefining living experiences, breaking traditions and providing good, safe and comfortable corporate living.

The Process

The process is simple and our sales and housing team will take care of the whole process for your organization:

- Dedicated sales team
- Property listing online
- Apartment viewing onsite
- Digital viewings
- Sign contract online
- Move-in and key hand over onsite
- 24/7 Housing Service
- Handyman on demand
- Termination & move-out process

Stay's partner services are all free of charge, with no hidden costs.

The relationship

We are one of the largest providers of corporate long term apartment's in Stockholm. In 2021/22 we are expanding to the North, East and South of Sweden. So stay tuned!

Stay believes in long lasting relationships and our past shows us that our tenants love staying with us. It is a long term solution, flexible and personal. We customize the living experience to the customers demands.

The partnership

The relationship between Stay Sthlm and the customers should be simple and seamless - just as we run our business today. Stay, unlike other agencies, take no fees nor hidden agenda. We are simply just a seamless specialized corporate apartment provider. We are a dedicated full service partner to our customers and tenants with a qualitative housing solution.

The solution

Together, we will be the challenger on the housing market, finding new ways to make the transfer to Sweden as smooth and seamless as possible.

Stay offers furnished and unfurnished corporate apartments for companies that have employees relocating to Sweden. Stay is the simple and effective choice, as we do the search, the paperworks and take care of your employees during their stay in Sweden.

TOMORROW

Ambitions are high. The opportunities are reachable. The future challenge is reachable. Stay is here to stay and grow with our partners.

The day after tomorrow

Being active on the market and being part of where it happens is a matter of course for us at Stay. In 2021, a new company has emerged and we are very pleased to present Stay North, a part of Stay in Sweden.

With new companies entering the business, new expertise and products being developed and the collaboration between sectors are getting bigger. There is a real opportunity and Stay will stand out in the category by being bold, innovative, alert and a market challenger.

The ambitions

Stay Sthlm are prepared to do something bold, against the existing conventions and codes of the category, to break through and redefine living experiences.

We strive to make the relationship with our trusted partners and clients as seamless as possible.

We believe this is done through transparency, trusted relationships, years of experience, service teams on call, digitalisation and with no hidden costs.
