RE: Public Meeting Notice – May 17-19, 2022
Conservation district tour, work session and business meeting

The Washington State Conservation Commission (WSCC) invites you to participate in a conservation tour and interaction dinner meeting on Tuesday, May 17, 2022, hosted by the Lincoln County Conservation District (LCCD). In addition to the tour, on Wednesday, May 18, the WSCC will have a work planning session followed by their business meeting on Thursday, May 19, in Spokane, Washington. All members of the public are welcome.

To continue protecting the health and safety of staff, members, and guests, the WSCC will provide options to participate via online webinar and teleconference for meetings. Masks will be available for guests attending in person. Note: Masks are not required to be worn, however, they are highly encouraged.
