

Corianton "Cori" Ingalls

May 29, 1980 - July 2, 2013

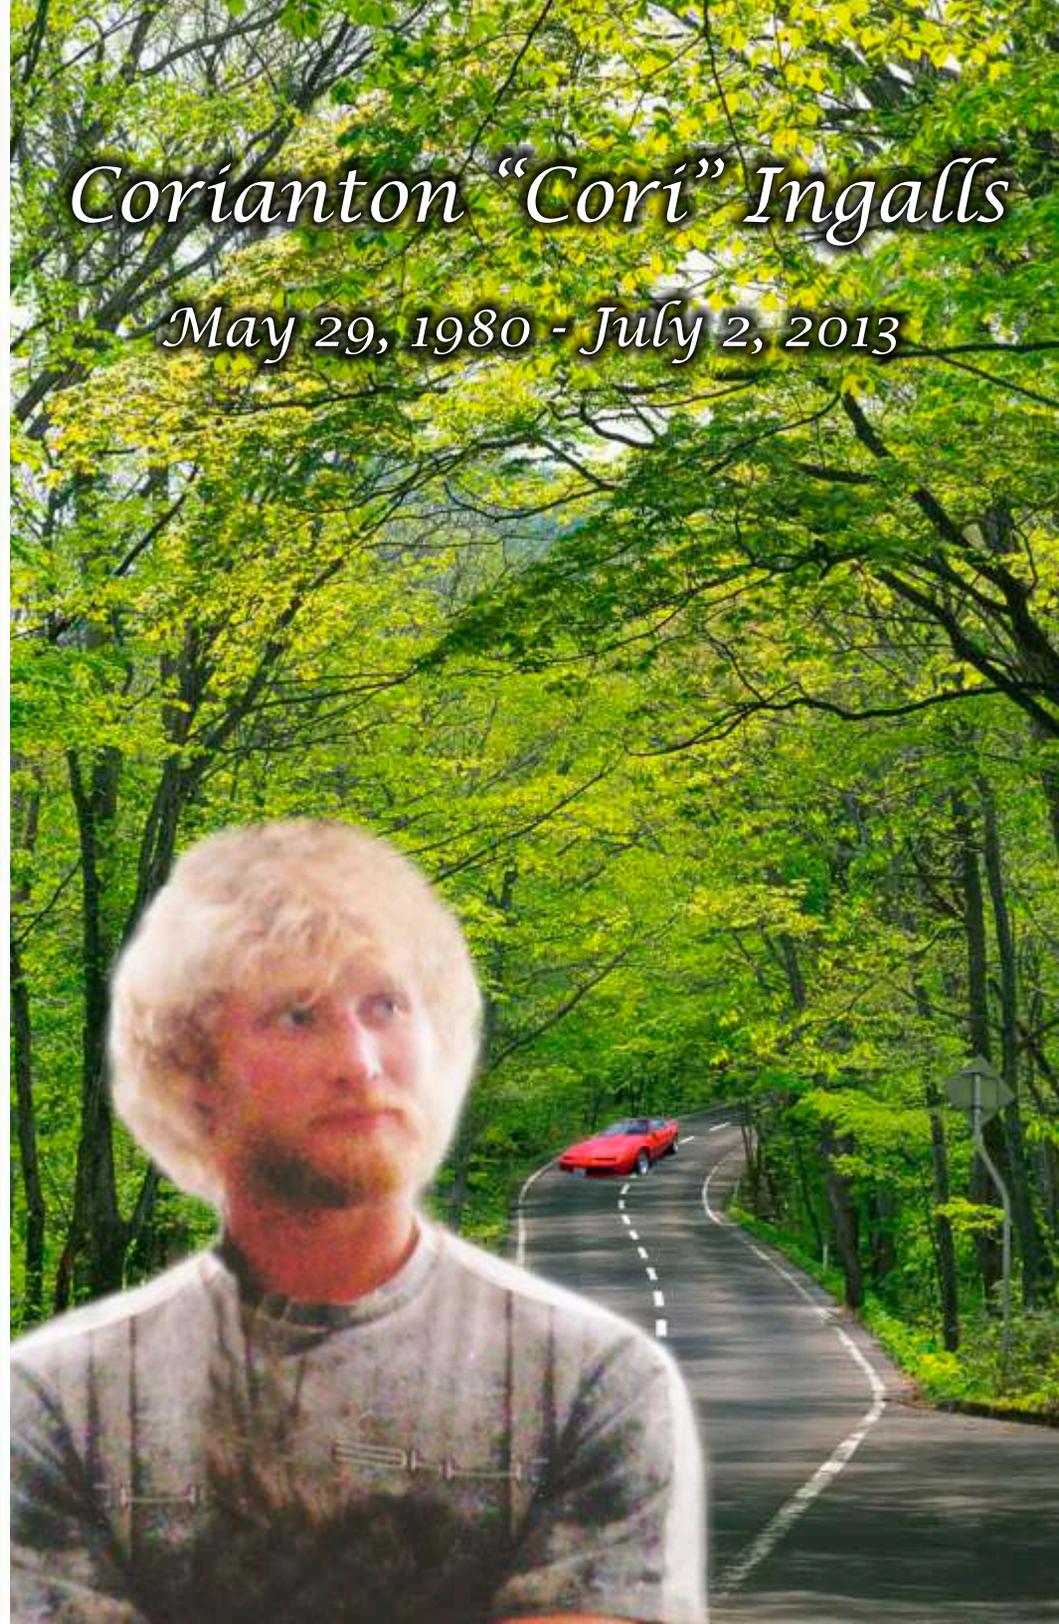

Corianton "Cori" James Ingalls, 33, formerly of Sheridan, passed away on Tuesday, July 2, 2013 in Billings, MT. He was born on May 29, 1980 in Denver, CO to James Donald and Anna Maria (Nagler) Ingalls.

Cori wanted to be a chef by attending culinary arts school in Denver. He was unable to complete the schooling and went to work as a construction worker in WY. He continued to alternately work as a construction worker and cook.

Cori was a valued worker where ever he went. He spent several years in Jackson, WY and lived with his grandfather and grandmother Ingalls in Sheridan, WY for several months. He went to Billings, MT seeking employment at the time of his death.

Cori had many abilities. He had a fine mind and was able to recall most of what he read on almost any subject and often used this knowledge in conversations with friends and family. He had an extensive vocabulary which he often used, whenever it was appropriate, to enliven his conversation with others. Working with Spanish speaking workers on construction jobs, in Jackson, he became close friends with them and became fluent in Spanish.

Cori was preceded in death by his sister, Rhiannon Ami Ingalls and his great grandfather, Nagler. He is survived by his grandfather and grandmother Ingalls, his grandparents, Richard and Marilyn Nagler, his grandmother, Jimi Nagler, five brothers, and many uncles, aunts, and cousins.

I'm Free

I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now:
He set me free.

In Loving Memory of Corianton James Ingalls
