SILENT, STRONG DAD

He never looks for praises.
He's never one to boast.
He just goes on quietly working
For those he loves the most.
His dreams are seldom spoken.
His wants are very few,
And most of the time his worries
Will go unspoken, too.
He's there...a firm foundation
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold onto
In times of stress and strife.
A true friend we can turn to
When times are good or bad.
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that we called DAD.

KENNY LARSON

The Man, The Myth, The Legend:
not to all but to those who knew and loved him.
He was a Son, Brother, Husband, Father, Uncle, Cousin, Grandpa, Great Grandpa, Friend and Co-worker.
He was a man of integrity, strength, resilience, compassion and honor.
He had a kind and gentle spirit and a deep love for his family,
friends and his dogs.
He was a man of the outdoors,
whether it was working or for play.
He was always up for a good hunt.
The chase of a deer, elk or moose brought him great joy.
He also enjoyed a relaxing day with a hook in the water.
Nothing beat the joy of catching salmon, halibut and rock fish when he got to take his dream trip to Alaska.
He was a dedicated and hardworking man as well.
He enjoyed the many co-workers he met over the years.
Some as an employee and some as a boss.
He touched many lives along his journey in the oilfield.
When not working he enjoyed spending time wrestling with livestock on several of the local ranches.
He also spent time in the shop tinkering on his old Ford.
He was known for a good laugh, shoulder to cry on and a listening ear.
He enjoyed a good chat with friends as he knew no strangers.
He was very kind and big hearted.
He made sure that every holiday or birthday was acknowledged by the family with a text and 10 emojis.
We will miss all the love and support he gave us.
