

Celebrating The Life Of Ron Aylor

Ron Aylor, 65, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday February 12, 2022. He was born to George and Cleo Aylor on May 10, 1956 in Denver, CO where he lived most of his childhood. Eventually he found his home in Kremmling, Colorado, where he loved being in the mountains and exploring the outdoors. He spent much of his spare time enjoying snowmobiling, ATVing, hiking, fishing and camping. After retiring from Grand County Road and Bridge in October of 2020 Ron and wife, Deanna, moved to Kirby, WY to seek new adventures and enjoy life together.

Ron is survived by his wife of 21 years, Deanna, 3 step-children Mike (Torrington, WY), Robbie (Bakersfield, CA), and JoAnna (Paul) (Kremmling, CO), 6 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren, 2 sisters (Terri and Jill), and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. He is preceded in death by his parents, a sister (Martha) a brother (George) and sister-in-law (Nita).

“Make each day your masterpiece”

May 10, 1956 - February 12, 2022

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry, The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things, We did not get to say

I know how much you love me, As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts with out me, Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready, In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind, All those I Dearly Love

But When I walked through Heaven's Gates, I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me, From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity, And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done, But Here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow, For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way, There is no longing for the past

So When Tomorrow starts without me, Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me, Remember I'm right here in your heart
