

Celebrating The Life Of Heather Miller

Heather Dawn Miller, of Sheridan, WY, fought a hard battle, but was taken from us much too early on December 3rd. She was 51 years old.

She was born in Lincoln Nebraska on February 16th, 1971. After graduating from Campbell County High School in 1989, she went on to pursue her degree in elementary education from the University of Wyoming. She continued her education throughout her career, receiving her Masters degree and was just shy of having a PhD. Heather taught and touched the lives of so many children for 24 years; 21 of those years being in Sheridan, WY at Woodland Park Elementary. She cherished every student she worked with and cared for their success. Her amazing work with children has truly made our community a better place.

In 1990, Heather gave birth to her daughter Devon, her only child. She was an amazing mother who raised her daughter while also attending school full-time. In October of 1992, she met Dan who immediately became her best friend. They wed in August 1994 in Gillette, Wyoming. In 1996, Dan adopted Devon as his own. Heather and Devon were so fortunate that he walked into their lives 30 years ago - "his girls" have always been his world. In August 2016, she gained a son when Devon married Brett.

In May of 2020, Heather became a grandma to her grandson Terran - a title she had always longed for. She decided she wanted to be called "Grammy" because "it's cute and also a major award". She adored her grandson and he absolutely adored her back. Heather and Dan loved to spend their days spoiling him, showering him with love and watching him grow.

Heather enjoyed spending time with her friends and family, road trips with Dan, camping, planting flowers, and fabulously organizing everything in her life. She was often the life of the party, especially during her and Dan's epic Halloween parties. She loved celebrating Halloween with Dan and Devon - she even had a black tree to decorate. She also cherished sitting in the light of her Christmas tree, decked out in twinkling white lights and buffalo plaid.

She is survived by her loving husband, Dan Miller of Sheridan, daughter, Devon Bursell (Brett) and grandson, Terran of Sheridan; her parents, Sandi and Pat Love of Gillette, WY; sister Stephanie Rosenberg (Eric) of New York, NY; brother Michael Love (Mandy) of Gillette, WY; niece and nephews, Ben, Lauryn, and Bridger; and countless other family and friends. And we can't forget the cats - Tigger and Freddy.

I Swear

I see the questions in your eyes
I know what's weighing on your mind
But you can be sure I know my part
'Cause I'll stand beside you through the years
You'll only cry those happy tears
And though I'll make mistakes, I'll never break your heart

I swear, by the moon and the stars in the sky
I'll be there
I swear, like the shadow that's by your side
I'll be there
For better or worse, 'til death do us part
I'll love you with every beat of my heart
I swear

I'll give you everything I can
I'll build your dreams with these two hands
We'll hang some memories on the wall
And when there's silver in your hair
You won't have to ask if I still care
'Cause as time turns the page, my love won't age at all

God Saw

God saw that she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched,
Suffered, and saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

In Loving Memory Of Heather Dawn Miller
