

Strategy Consultant

About Scalene Group

Scalene is a fast-growing, specialist retail advisory and analytics business. We provide strategy, process design and analytics services to help retailers optimise their performance and leverage data effectively in their day-to-day decision-making.

We partner with our clients to deliver tailored solutions that turn complex data into high value, easy to implement solutions. We operate from offices in Melbourne, Sydney and London to support a growing number of leading retailers in Australia, Asia and Europe.

We have an ambitious growth agenda and are keen to expand our team with highly skilled and passionate individuals to help us continue to deliver great value for our clients and support delivery of our development plans.

About the Role

As a Strategy Consultant you will contribute to the growth of Scalene by supporting the successful delivery of client work as a key member of project delivery teams and by helping to develop and implement internal strategic initiatives. Your responsibilities include:

- Capture and document client requirements, and then translate these into actions
- Analyse datasets and generate insights to help bring clients along the “project journey”
- Convert data and analysis outputs into effective, clear communication documents appealing to a wide range of stakeholders
- Support project management through on time delivery of requirements and by proactively identifying critical activities
- Engage client teams, ensuring trust and rapport is built to help create long term client relationships
- Build user-friendly tools and analytic products
- Help identify opportunities with potential to drive value both for our clients and Scalene going forward
- Propose, develop and lead streams of work to support Scalene’s internal development agenda
