Map out the information architecture

Think about how the content and features in the app are organised and named.
Translate that into a simple diagram to show the information architecture.