The Way Hold'em Wants to Be Played!

High Roller Hold'em is a poker variant using a single 52-card deck. Players place equal Ante and Odds wagers and receive 2 cards. The dealer also receives 2 cards and deals 5 community cards.

Pre-Flop

After checking their 2 cards, players must decide to fold or make a Pre-Flop wager 1x - 3x their Ante.

Flop

After the flop is revealed, players must again decide to fold or make a Flop wager 2x - 5x their Ante.

The Turn and River cards are revealed and each player and the dealer form their best 5-card hand. There is no dealer qualifier! Instead, if the player wins, the Pre-Flop and the Flop wagers are paid even money, while the Ante and Odds wagers are paid based on a payable.

Trips Plus

Players win if their best 5-card hand is a winning event listed on the payable.

Pocket Bonus

Players win if their two pocket cards form a winning hand listed on the payable.
