TACTICAL ANALYSIS

INTERPRETATION OF PLAY

He knows how to play on different zones and stages of the pitch. He is capable of dropping back to participate in the build-up play, showing up in between the lines or being an option of play in the last third.

DYNAMISM

He has stamina to perform throughout the game. This way he helps his team to keep creating play, mainly through his ability to run into space or receive while building-up.

DEPTH

He joins each attacking action of his team. He is able to put a teammate into play, as well as moving near and into the box.

TACTICAL ANALYSIS

La Pizarra del DT

PASSING TECHNIQUE

He helps his team to circulate the ball because of his accuracy and reading of play. He moves the ball side to side, but he is good at sending passes into space, in between the lines or to a teammate in good position.

GROUND CHALLENGES

He wins individual duels in different contexts. He overcome them since he has great jumping and anticipation technique. All those aspects allow him to win ground challenges.

PERSONALITY

He is a leader to take on the responsibility of building-up play. He constantly associates. Not only in behind the opponent, but moving around to keep participating.
