POSITIONING

His positioning on the pitch allows him to be a passing option. His technical capacity not just generates advantages by driving, controlling and passing, but he is elastic to fake movements then switch direction and change pace to guide the attack.

DEPTH

He can generate play through his vision of play when transitioning into attack. He makes breaking-line passes either when counter-attacking or positionally attacking. He is capable of making short, medium and long passes.

TACKLES AND COVERAGES

He is aggressive to regain the possession. He helps a lot on the defensive phase, putting the rival uncomfortable. He recognizes how to anticipate or block passing lines.

SUPPORTS FROM THE BACK

He creates play through his mobility. He passes the ball and shows up into space, on different lanes, mainly when building up from the back. He knows how to play one or two touches in order to unbalance the marker.
