Despite market turmoil, individuals are more interested in investing money now than before.

Brokers like Zerodha and HDFC Securities have seen rapid increase in account creations in the last two months

You can't capitalize on this growth moment without going digital...

SEBI Circular dated 24 April 2020 prescribes Aadhaar eSign for digital onboarding

भारतीय प्रतिभूति और विनिमय बोर्ड
Securities and Exchange Board of India

3(c) Aadhaar eSign shall be accepted in lieu of wet signature on the documents provided by the investor.

4 (ii) Photo/Scan of Investor's OVD / PAN / signed cancelled cheque shall be attested by Aadhaar eSign.

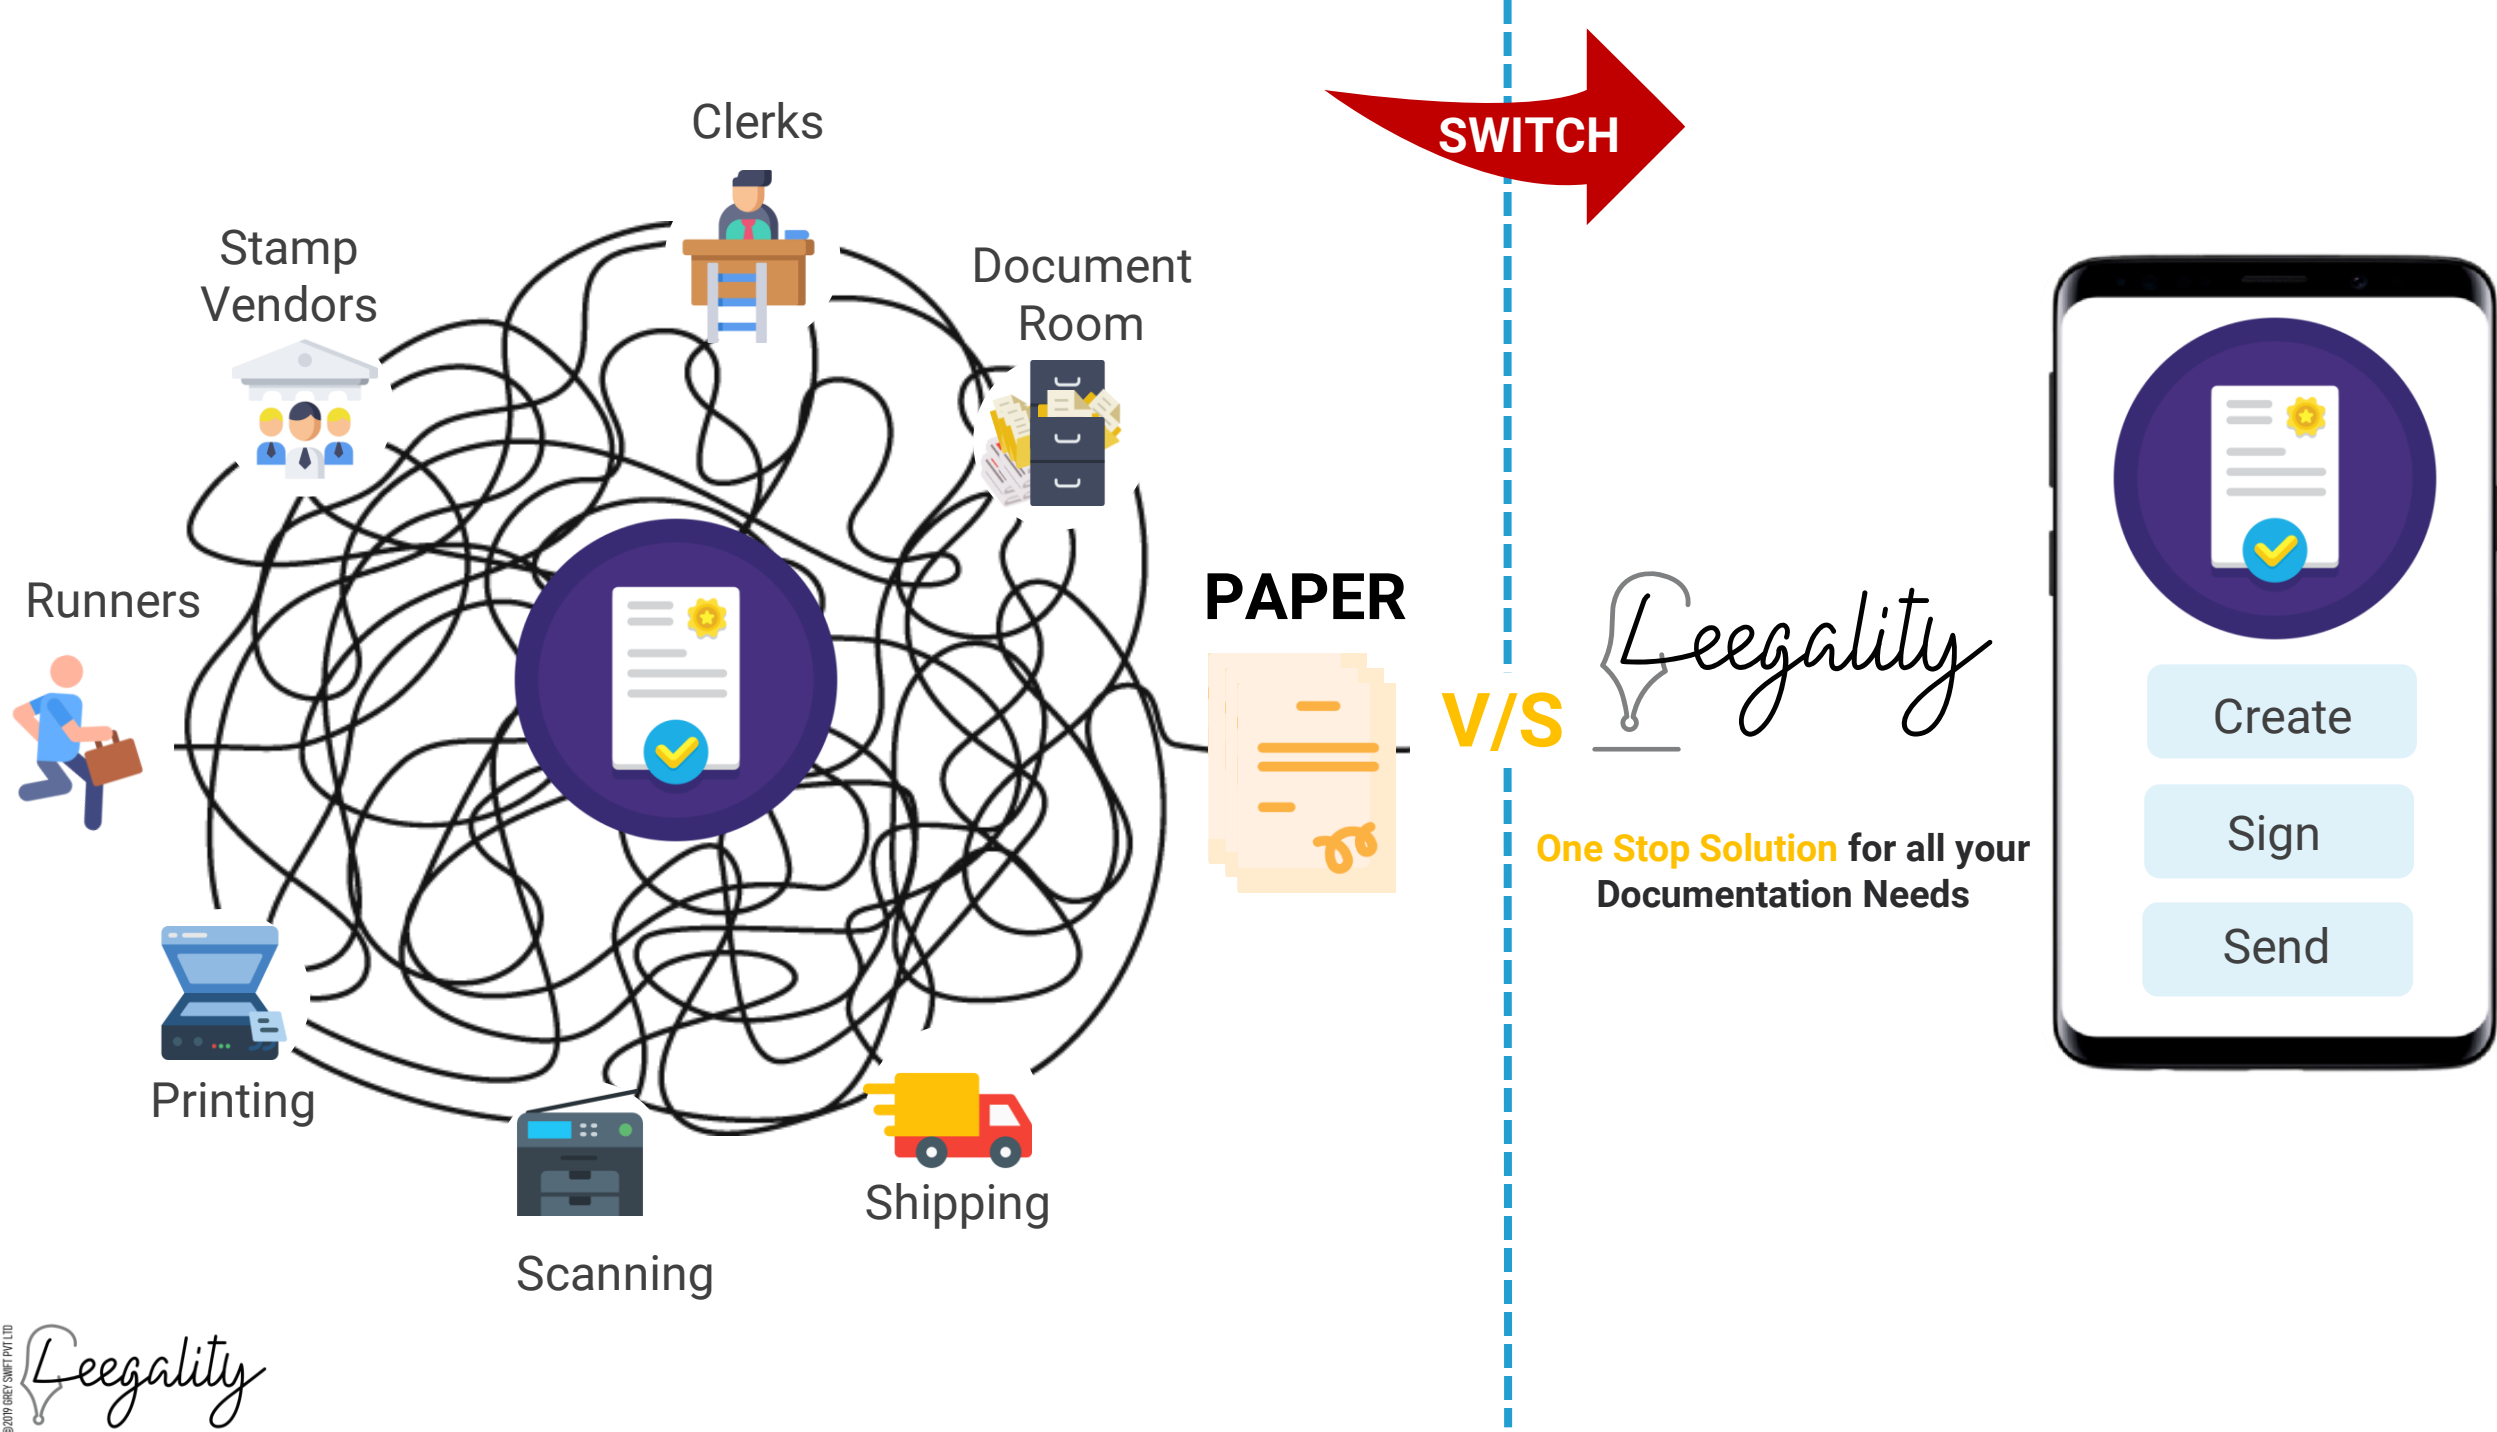

4(vi) KYC Form to be attested by Investor through Aadhaar eSign.

Aadhaar eSign is needed for the following parts of the digital onboarding journey

- ✓ Attesting Officially Valid Documents
- ✓ Signing and attesting KYC Forms
- ✓ Signing Agreement

What if we told you there was a way to integrate eSign into your processes in less than a week

India's most trusted Aadhaar eSign solution

Leegality was used by 22 Banks (public sector, private sector and foreign) to sign the Orchid Pharma Insolvency Resolution Plan Documentation.

The deal, worth INR 1100 Crores is the highest valued transaction to be eSigned in India

Dhanuka Agritech Limited

We were able to complete the process within the time limit despite the lockdown restricting the movement.

The documentation has been done digitally, through Aadhaar enabled digital signatures on Leegality.com platform, so that we complete the transaction on or before March 31.

We had to complete in 30 days from the date of order and we have put all our efforts to comply this.
