New Members with Voting Rights Only

According to the by-laws of the Arabian Horse Association of Arizona (AHAA), membership in the AHAA shall be confined to those persons who fill the qualifications for membership. A current member of the AHAA who is in good standing must sponsor applicant. The applicant and sponsor are required to attend at least one AHAA function prior to confirmation of membership. The board of directors, at the next regular board meeting, will review the application.

Sponsor Name: _____ Signature: _____

AHAA Function I attended: _____ Date: _____

Membership in the Corporation shall be confined to those persons who fill the qualifications for membership as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors. Applications for membership shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by the written recommendation for membership of a Member of the Corporation who is in good standing, together with any and all required fees for the cost of initiation and any current dues that might be owing. The application shall be referred to the Membership Committee for proper evaluation. The Membership Committee shall thereafter investigate the applicant within sixty (60) days of the submission of the application. Following the approval of the Membership Committee and, providing that the applicant has attended at least one function of the membership prior to confirmation of admission to membership, the Board of Directors, at the next duly held regular or special meeting shall either approve or disapprove the application. In the event of a recommendation from the Membership Committee for disapproval of the application, the applicant may be approved by the Board of Directors upon the affirmative vote of three-quarters (3/4) of the members of the Board of Directors. Memberships are non-transferable. The right of a Member to vote and all of his or her rights, authority and control concerning the Corporation or its property shall cease automatically upon the termination of membership in the Corporation by expiration, resignation, cancellation, expulsion or otherwise. The Board of Directors may determine dues for the general membership for each fiscal year. The Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine what, if any, assessments are to be levied against Members. Nonpayment of dues or assessments shall be grounds for suspension of voting rights during the period of delinquency as determined by the Board of Directors. Dues are due and payable prior to expiration. Failure to pay dues shall result in immediate and automatic revocation of a Member's right to vote at any Membership meeting and shall require that the delinquent Member make application to the Board of Directors for reinstatement. Members shall be terminated whenever such Members ceases to possess the qualifications for membership or for cause as determined by the Board of Directors, or upon the death or resignation of a Member. Prior to the termination of any membership for cause, the Board of Directors shall notify such Member in writing and the Member shall have the right to request a hearing by the Board. Upon the member's failure to request a hearing, his or her membership shall terminate within ten (10) days after the notice of intention to terminate the membership by the Board. In the event of a hearing, the membership shall only be terminated upon a vote of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board of Directors. Contributions or gifts to the AHAA are not tax deductible as charitable contributions; however, they may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.
