RECOMMENDATION

That Council adopt the attached revised Councillor Code of Conduct.

BACKGROUND

In October 2015, The Local Government Amendment (Improved Governance) Act 2015 introduced reforms and a conduct framework to significantly strengthen Councillor Conduct requirements. - processes for resolving internal disputes between Councillors
- provisions prescribed for in The Local Government Amendment (Improved Governance) Act 2015
- provisions addressing any prescribed matters
- any other matters relating to the conduct of Councillors which the Council considers appropriate

As per the legislation, a revised Councillor Code of Conduct must be adopted at a Special Council Meeting, called solely for the purpose of reviewing and adopting the Councillor Code of Conduct no later than the 4 July 2016.

Following the adoption of the Code of Conduct, each Councillor must sign a declaration that they will abide by the Councillor Code of Conduct. This must also be witnessed and signed by the CEO.

A copy of the adopted Councillor Code of Conduct must also be:

- Given to each Councillor;
- Available for inspection by the public at the Council office and any district offices;
- Published on the Council's website

COUNCILLOR CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Introduction

The Local Government Act 1989 (the Act) requires a Council to develop and maintain a Councillor Code of Conduct.

Wellington Shire Council's, Councillor Code of Conduct, includes an internal resolution procedure for dealing with any alleged contraventions of the Code.

Failure by a Councillor to comply with the Council's internal resolution procedure or to comply with a written direction given by the Council under section 81AB of the Act (sanctions for contravention of the Code) constitutes misconduct by a Councillor. A Council can apply sanctions to a Councillor who has been found to have contravened the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If a Councillor Conduct Panel makes a finding of misconduct against a Councillor, the Panel may apply further sanctions against that Councillor.

2. Purpose of the Councillor Code of Conduct

The purpose of local government is to provide a system under which Councils perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred by or under the Local Government Act 1989 and any other Act for the peace, order and good government of their municipal districts.

Good governance is fundamental to a Council being able to perform its purpose. Good governance relies on good working relations between councillors.

Wellington Shire Council's Councillor Code of Conduct:

- sets out the standards of conduct expected of elected representatives
- endeavours to foster good working relations between councillors to enable Councillors to work constructively together in the best interests of the Wellington Shire and the local community
- mandates councillor conduct designed to build public confidence in the integrity of local government.
- includes the internal resolution procedure for dealing with an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct
- sets out processes for the purpose of resolving an internal dispute between Councillors;
- includes other matters relating to the conduct of Councillors, which we as Councillors, consider to be appropriate

3. Adoption of the Councillor Code of Conduct

From the 2016 Council elections, a person elected to be a Councillor is not capable of acting as a Councillor until the person has read the Councillor Code of Conduct and made a declaration stating that they will abide by the Councillor Code of Conduct. The declaration must be signed and witnessed by the CEO. If the councillor fails to make a declaration to abide by the councillor code of conduct within three months of being elected, their position is declared vacated.

It is the personal responsibility of councillors to ensure that they are conversant with, and comply with, the provisions of this Code.

A Council must, within 4 months after a general election:

- (a) call a special council meeting solely for the purpose of reviewing the Councillor Code of Conduct; and

- (b) at that special council meeting, approve any amendments to be made to the Councillor Code of Conduct, determined by the Council to be necessary following the review of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Council may also choose to review this Code of Conduct at any other time.

A copy of this Code of Conduct (as amended from time to time) must be:

- given to each councillor
- available for inspection at the council office and any district offices
- published on the Council's website

4. Conduct Obligations

The Act places obligations on Councillors in relation to way they should act. The Act also prohibits certain conduct by Councillors and prescribes penalties for Councillors who contravene these provisions.

As Councillors of Wellington Shire Council, we undertake to comply with the various provisions of the Act and with this Code of Conduct.

Section 76B of the Act sets out the primary principles of councillor conduct as follows:

"It is the primary principle of Councillor conduct that, in performing the role of a Councillor, a Councillor must:

- (a) act with integrity; and
- (b) impartially exercise his or her responsibilities in the interests of the local community; and
- (c) not improperly seek to confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person."

Section 76BA of the Act sets out the general principles of councillor conduct as follows:

"In addition to acting in accordance with the primary principle of Councillor conduct specified in section 76B, in performing the role of a Councillor, a Councillor must:

- (a) avoid conflicts between his or her public duties as a Councillor and his or her personal interests and obligations;
- (b) act honestly and avoid statements (whether orally or in writing) or actions that will or are likely to mislead or deceive a person;
- (c) treat all persons with respect and have due regard to the opinions, beliefs, rights and responsibilities of other Councillors, Council staff and other persons;
- (d) exercise reasonable care and diligence and submit himself or herself to the lawful scrutiny that it is appropriate to his or her office;
- (e) endeavour to ensure that public resources are used prudently and solely in the public interest;
- (f) act lawfully and in accordance with the trust placed in him or her as an elected representative;
- (g) support and promote these principles by leadership and example and act in a way that secures and preserves public confidence in the office of Councillor."

Councillors are required to conduct themselves in observance of the primary principles and the general principles. We undertake to do this.

The Wellington Shire Council also strives to be an organisation of exceptional character.

As Councillors we confirm our commitment to lead by example, promote the highest standard in the way that Council business is conducted, undertake to comply with various provisions of the Act, and also collectively adhere to the behaviours detailed below which are encapsulated by the acronym REACH, which stands for Respectful, Engaged, Accountable, Creative and Honest:

- not use Council resources, including services of Council staff, for private purposes, unless legally or properly authorised to do so, and payments are made where appropriate;
- ensure that Council resources are always used effectively and economically and for the purposes for which they are provided
- ensure that Council resources are not used in a way that creates an impression of Council endorsement
- not use public funds or resources in a manner that is improper or unauthorised

6. Gifts and Hospitality

Councillors will scrupulously avoid situations giving rise to the appearance that a person or body, through the provision of gifts, benefits or hospitality of any kind, is attempting to gain favourable treatment from an individual Councillor or from the Council.

Councillors will take all reasonable steps to ensure that their immediate family members (parents, spouse, children and siblings) do not receive gifts or benefits that give rise to the appearance of being an attempt to gain favourable treatment.

Where a gift is received on behalf of the Council, the gift becomes the property of the Council. For transparency and accountability purposes, these gifts will be recorded in the Councillors Gifts Register with a notation that it is the property of the Council.

Councillors recognise that gifts equal to or above the gift disclosure threshold received in the twelve months prior to election from a person or body that has a direct interest in a matter may give rise to an indirect interest because of receipt of an applicable gift.

All gifts accepted by Councillors, regardless of value, must be declared and details included on Council's Gifts Register.

Examples where Councillors should not accept a gift include where:

- a) such a gift could be perceived as intended to or likely to influence the Councillor in the fair, impartial and efficient discharge of their duties; or
- b) there is or may be the perception of a conflict of interest with past, present or future duties or where the object of the gift is to maintain or return a favour.

Councillors will not accept gifts either in their roles as Councillor or where it could be perceived to influence the Councillor except where:

- a) the gift would generally be regarded as having a token value only and could not be perceived to influence the Councillor's actions;
- b) the gift, in the form of hospitality, is reasonably provided by a not-for-profit organisation to a Councillor attending a function or event in an official capacity;
- c) refusal of the gift may cause offence or embarrassment, in which case the gift may be accepted on behalf of Council and becomes the property of Council; or
- d) there is a clear value to Council and acceptance cannot be seen to advantage the host company

Councillors will record all campaign donations in our "campaign donation return".

7. Media and Communication

Councillors will endeavour to ensure that the messages communicated through the media are clear and consistent, and positively portray the Council as a decisive and responsible governing body in accordance with Council's Media and Communications Policy.

- (a) State-wide political issues affecting Local Government
- (b) Contentious local issues that impact the community that do not relate directly to the business of Council but to the representation of the community
- (c) Issues pertaining to policy and Council decisions

The CEO is the official spokesperson for all operational matters pertaining to the Wellington Shire Council as an organisation including:

- (a) Staffing and structure of the organisation
- (b) Corporate issues relating to service provision or the day-to-day business of Council

- Misuse of Position
- Improper Direction and Influence
- Confidential Information
- Conflict of Interest
- Electoral Conduct

These matters are set out below in order to provide a complete picture of the obligations on Councillors. While these matters are not of a nature to be addressed as a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, we undertake to comply with the prohibitions on Councillor conduct set out below. conflict of interest in accordance with the provisions of the Act (unless any of the exemptions apply).

A Councillor has a direct interest in a matter if there is a reasonable likelihood that the benefits, obligations, opportunities or circumstances of the Councillor would be directly altered if the matter is decided in a particular way. This includes, where there is a reasonable likelihood that the person will receive a direct benefit or loss that can be measured in financial terms and where the Councillor, or together with a member or members of the person's family, have a controlling interest in a company or other body that has a direct interest in the matter.

- (c) If a Councillor has a personal interest in a matter to be considered by the Council or special committee that is not a conflict of interest, and the Councillor considers that their personal interest may be in conflict with their public duty to act impartially and in the interest of the whole community, the Councillor will declare a conflicting personal interest under section 79B of the Act immediately before the matter is considered at the relevant meeting and apply to the Council or special committee to be exempted from voting on the matter

9. Personal Dealings with Council

When we deal with our Council in our private capacity (e.g. as a ratepayer, recipient of a Council service or applicant for a permit) we do not expect nor will we request preferential treatment in relation to any such private matter. We will avoid any action that could lead Council staff or members of the public to believe that we are seeking preferential treatment.

10. Other Legislative Requirements

Alleged contraventions of these provisions are not to be dealt with by the Council using the internal resolution procedure in this Code of Conduct. We undertake to respect the functions of the Chief Executive Officer and to comply with the policies, practices and protocols defining appropriate arrangements for interaction between Council staff and Councillors that are put in place by the Chief Executive Officer.

12. Representatives on Behalf of Council

As leader and chief spokesperson for the Council, the Mayor represents the Council at official functions and events.

Opportunities for Councillors to represent the Council will generally occur in one of the following ways:

- (a) referral of an invitation sent directly to the Mayor;
- (b) an invitation directly to a Councillor from an external source;
- (c) an invitation forwarded to management from an external source seeking the nomination of the appropriate Councillor; or
- (d) an invitation to a Councillor by a member of management.

In determining the appropriate representative in the circumstances referred to above, consideration should be given to the role and responsibilities of Councillors.

Councillor Involvement at Sponsored Events

- (a) As part of involvement in sponsored events, Councillors will be given the opportunity of attending and playing an official role in a wide range of activities.
- (b) Where an official role (speaking or otherwise) is available to Councillors, the opportunity shall first be offered to the Mayor.

Civic Functions

- (a) Councillors will have the opportunity of involvement in civic functions that actively support the Council's role as a regional cultural, sporting and business centre. The hosting of civic functions is an opportunity for the Council to take an appropriate leadership role in high profile Council events and activities.
- (b) As part of the Mayor's ceremonial role, the Mayor should always take the lead role in hosting a function (when in attendance).

13. Candidature of Councillors

Distinction between Prospective Candidate and Nominated Candidate

The below guidelines draw a distinction between Prospective Candidates and Nominated Candidates because, as with council elections, candidates for state and federal elections only become actual nominated candidates a few weeks prior to the relevant election date. Accordingly, this policy recommends different treatment for Prospective Candidates and Nominated Candidates on the basis that some requirements are recommended as appropriate for Nominated Candidates during a formal election period which are not considered to be necessary prior to the formal election period.

- (a) A councillor who becomes an endorsed candidate of a registered political party or publicly expresses an intention to run as an independent candidate for a state or federal election (a Prospective Candidate), should provide written advice to the CEO, as soon as practicable, who should then advise all councillors.
- (b) A councillor who is a Prospective Candidate, should declare his/her intended candidacy at a meeting of the council as soon as practicable after notifying the CEO pursuant to section 13 (a).
- (c) A councillor who nominates as a candidate for a state or federal election (a Nominated Candidate), should apply for leave of absence from the council and this leave of absence should commence no later than the date of their nomination as a candidate with the relevant electoral commission for the election (Nomination Date) and conclude no earlier than the close of voting for the election. During this period, a councillor who is on a leave of absence should not attend meetings of the council or otherwise act as a councillor.
- (d) Any councillor / staff relationship protocol which the council has in place in respect of the caretaker period prior to a council election, should be observed by a Nominated Candidate and this should apply from their Nomination Date until the close of voting for the election.
- (e) A council, upon receiving an application for a leave of absence from a councillor who is a Nominated Candidate or who intends to become a Nominated Candidate, should approve that application.
- (f) A councillor who is a Prospective Candidate or a Nominated Candidate, should take care to differentiate between his/her role as a state or federal election candidate and role as a councillor when making public comment.
- (g) A councillor who is a Prospective Candidate or a Nominated Candidate, should not use council resources, including council equipment and facilities in relation to his/her candidacy.
- (h) A councillor who is a Prospective Candidate or a Nominated Candidate, should not attend council activities, including committee meetings and council-related external activities in relation to his/her candidacy

14. Managing and Accessing Council Information

Managing Information

While Council values openness and accountability, during the course of their duties Councillors will be privy to information that is confidential. Reference to confidential information includes sensitive matters discussed at workshops and other Assemblies of Councillors.

Councillors will manage Council information appropriately and in particular:

- a) Will not use information gained by virtue of being a Councillor for any purpose other than to exercise their role as a Councillor;
- b) Will respect the Council's policies in relation to public comments and communications with the media
- c) Will treat with the utmost respect, information deemed "confidential information" in accordance with Section 77 of the Act

- d) Will recognise the requirements of the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 regarding the access, use and release of personal information
- e) Will comply with the provisions of Councils Information Management (Records) Policy at all times; and
- f) Acknowledge that all mail addressed to Councillors, both hard copy and electronic, is defined as "corporate" mail and as such is subject to automatic capture and monitoring by Council Officers.

Accessing Information

Councillors acknowledge that all requests made by Councillors for workshops from Council officers or access to information on Council files should be registered and reported. This obligation does not apply to requests for clarification/explanation of items on a forthcoming Council agenda.

In their capacity as a private resident of the Shire, Councillors may exercise their right to approach Council officers in the same way that any other resident may, and expect to receive the same level of service.

15. Definitions & Consequences of Misconduct

Definitions for misconduct, serious misconduct and gross misconduct by Councillors are summarised in the table below, along with the authority responsible for addressing the matter.

DEGREE OF SERIOUSNESS	DEFINITION	RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY	FINDINGS	CONSEQUENCES
Conduct inconsistent with standards council has set itself	Breaches of Councillor Codes of Conduct	Council Mayor Principal Conduct Officer	Remedial Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mediation Training Counselling

Any management of councillor conduct issues is designed to:

- Reinforce the responsibility and authority of councils to manage breaches of agreed conduct through a mandatory internal resolution procedure; and
- Only escalate management of misconduct and serious misconduct to panels when councils cannot resolve the matter internally; and
- Give panels' greater powers to manage and resolve misconduct and serious misconduct
- Retain the capacity to manage gross misconduct through VCAT

16. Dispute Resolution Procedures

This dispute resolution procedure is intended to be used when Councillors have been unable to resolve an interpersonal conflict and where the situation is unduly affecting the operation of the Council. It is not intended to resolve differences in policy or decision making, which are appropriately resolved through debate and voting in Council meetings.

Before commencing any formal dispute resolution process, the Councillors who are parties to a dispute are expected to use their best endeavours to resolve the matter in a courteous and respectful manner between themselves. Where, after these endeavours have been exhausted, the matter still remains unresolved, the parties may resort to any or all of the Wellington Shire Council's three phase dispute resolution process.

The Council's three phase dispute resolution process involves:

- (a) Phase 1 - Direct Negotiation between the parties in dispute with the Mayor in attendance to provide guidance;
- (b) Phase 2 - External Mediation by an independent mediator engaged by the Chief Executive Officer; and
- (c) Phase 3 - An internal resolution procedure involving an independent arbiter.

[Refer to Appendix 1 for a summary of the key roles in Councillor conduct resolution]

Phase 1 – Direct Negotiation

Where Councillors who are in dispute have not been able to resolve the dispute between them, either (or both) party (parties) may request the Mayor to convene a meeting of the parties.

A dispute referred for direct negotiation may relate to:

- an interpersonal conflict between Councillors where the conflict is or is likely to affect the operations of the Council; or
- an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The party requesting the direct negotiation meeting is to provide the Mayor with the name of the other Councillor and the details of the dispute in writing. The written request is to indicate that it is for a "direct negotiation" dispute resolution process. Where the request relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, the request must:

- specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code;
- specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened;
- include evidence in support of the allegation;
- name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the request is made by a group of councillors; and
- be signed and dated by the requestor or the requestor's representative.

The requestor is to notify the other party of the request and provide him or her with a copy of the written request either at the same time as it is provided to the Mayor or as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Mayor is to ascertain whether or not the other party is prepared to attend a "direct negotiation" meeting.

If the other party is not prepared to attend a meeting, the Mayor is to advise the requestor forthwith. No further action is required of the Mayor.

If the other party declines to participate in a meeting, this does not constitute a contravention of this Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the other party consents to a meeting, the Mayor is to convene a meeting of the parties at the earliest available opportunity. Unless one or both parties are unavailable, this should be within 5 working days of receiving the consent of the other party.

The Mayor may present the parties with guidelines, in advance of the meeting or at the meeting, to help facilitate the meeting.

The role of the Mayor at the meeting is to provide guidance to Councillors about what is expected of a Councillor including in relation to the role of a Councillor under section 65 of the Act, and the observation of the councillor conduct principles and the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The Mayor is to document any agreement reached at the meeting. Copies of the agreement are to be provided to both parties. Where one party does not comply with the agreement, the other party has recourse to external mediation or the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the parties cannot resolve the dispute at the meeting, a further meeting may be convened with the consent of both parties. Where the dispute remains unresolved, either or both of the parties have recourse to external mediation or the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Where the Mayor is a party to the dispute, the request is to be made to the Deputy Mayor (if any) or the immediate past Mayor. The Deputy Mayor or the immediate past Mayor will perform the functions ascribed to the Mayor.

Phase 2 – External Mediation

A Councillor or a group of Councillors may make an application for a dispute to be referred for external mediation whether or not the dispute has been the subject of an application for "direct negotiation".

An application made for a dispute to be referred for external mediation may relate to:

- an interpersonal conflict between Councillors where the conflict is or is likely to affect the operations of the Council; or
- an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The applicant is to submit a written application to the Principal Conduct Officer (PCO) setting out the name of the Councillor and the details of the dispute. The application is to indicate that the application is for an "external mediation". Where the application relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, the application must:

- specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code;
- specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened;
- include evidence in support of the allegation;
- name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the application is made by a group of councillors; and
- be signed and dated by the applicant or the applicant's representative.

The applicant is to notify the other party of the request and provide him or her with a copy of the application either at the same time that it is submitted to the (PCO) or as soon as practical thereafter.

The (PCO) is to ascertain (in writing) whether or not the other party is prepared to attend an "external mediation". If the other party declines to participate in an external mediation, he or she is to provide their reasons for doing so in writing to the (PCO). These reasons may be taken into account if the matter is, subsequently, the subject of an application for a Councillor Conduct Panel.

When the other party declines to participate in an external mediation, this does not constitute a contravention of this Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the other party agrees to participate in an external mediation, the (PCO) is to advise the applicant, the Mayor and Chief Executive Officer forthwith.

The Chief Executive Officer is to engage the services of an external mediator to conduct the mediation at the earliest practicable opportunity.

The mediator is to document any agreement reached at the meeting. Copies of the agreement are to be provided to both parties. Where one party does not comply with the agreement, the other party has recourse to the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the parties cannot resolve the dispute at the meeting, a further meeting may be convened with the consent of both parties. Where the dispute remains unresolved, the applicant has recourse to the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Phase 3 - Internal Resolution Procedure - Arbiter

An application cannot be made for an internal resolution procedure during the election period for a general election. Any internal resolution procedure that is in progress is to be suspended during the election period for a general election.

If the respondent to an application for an internal resolution procedure is not returned to office as a Councillor in the election, the application lapses. If the respondent is returned to office in the election, the application may resume if:

- the application was made by the Council and the Council so resolves; or
- the application were made by a group of Councillors and any one (or more) of those Councillors who has been returned to office wishes to proceed with the application; or
- the applicant (individual Councillor) is returned to office and wishes to proceed with the application.

A councillor or a group of councillors may make an application alleging that a Councillor has contravened this Councillor Code of Conduct. The application must:

- specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code;
- specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened;
- include evidence in support of the allegation;
- name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the application is made by a group of councillors; and
- be signed and dated by the applicant or the applicant's representative.

The application must be submitted to the Council's (PCO).

An applicant may withdraw an application for an internal resolution procedure. Once an application has been withdrawn, the same or a similar application relating to the same instance in relation to the respondent Councillor cannot be resubmitted by the applicant.

On receiving an application, the (PCO) will:

- advise the Mayor and CEO of the application without undue delay;
- provide a copy of the application to the Councillor who is the subject of the allegation at the earliest practical opportunity but not later than two working days from receipt of the application;
- identify an arbiter to hear the application;

- obtain from the arbiter written advice that they have no conflict of interest in relation to the Councillors involved;
- notify the parties of the name of the proposed arbiter and provide them with the opportunity (2 working days) to object to the person proposed to be the arbiter;
- consider the grounds of any objection and appoint the proposed arbiter or identify another arbiter;
- provide a copy of the application to the arbiter as soon as practicable after the opportunity for the parties to object to an arbiter has expired;
- after consultation with the arbiter, advise the applicant and the respondent of the time and place for the hearing; and
- attend the hearing(s) and assist the arbiter in the administration of the process

In identifying an arbiter to hear the application, the (PCO) must select an arbiter who is suitably independent and able to carry out the role of arbiter fairly.

The role of the arbiter is to:

- consider applications alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct by a Councillor;
- make findings in relation to any application alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct which the arbiter must give to the Council;
- give a written statement of reasons supporting the findings to the Council at the same time as it gives its findings to the Council;
- recommend an appropriate sanction or sanctions where the arbiter has found that a Councillor has contravened the Councillor Code of Conduct.

In considering an application alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, an arbiter will:

- in consultation with the (PCO), fix a time and place to hear the application;
- authorise the (PCO) to formally notify the applicant and the respondent of the time and place of the hearing;
- hold as many meetings as he or she considers necessary to properly consider the application. The arbiter may hold a directions hearing;
- have discretion to conduct the hearings as he or she deems fit while ensuring that the hearings are conducted with as little formality and technicality as due and proper consideration of the application allows;
- ensure that the parties to and affected by an application are given an opportunity to be heard by the arbiter;
- consider an application by a respondent to have legal representation at the hearing to ensure that the hearing is conducted fairly and may, in his or her absolute discretion, grant the application or deny the application;
- ensure that the rules of natural justice are observed and applied in the hearing of the application; and
- ensure that the hearings are closed to the public.

Where an application to have legal representation is granted by an arbiter, the costs of the respondent's legal representation are to be borne by the respondent in their entirety.

An arbiter:

- may find that a Councillor who is a respondent to an internal resolution procedure application has not contravened the Code;
- may find that a Councillor who is a respondent to an internal resolution procedure has contravened the Code;
- will suspend consideration of an internal resolution procedure during the election period for a general election.

The arbiter is to give a copy of his or her findings and the statement of reasons to the Council, the applicant and the respondent. At the same time, the arbiter provides the findings and statement of reasons, he or she shall, where a Councillor has been found to have contravened the Code, recommend an appropriate sanction or sanctions for the contravention for consideration by the Council.

A copy of the arbiter's findings, statement of reasons and any recommended sanctions is to be submitted to the next ordinary meeting of the Council for its consideration. If an arbiter has found that a contravention of the Code has occurred, the Council may, after considering the arbiter's findings, statement of reasons and recommendation on sanctions, give any or all of the following written directions to the Councillor:

- direct the Councillor to make an apology in a form or manner specified by the Council;
- direct the Councillor to not attend up to, but not exceeding, 2 meetings of the Council (in respect of the next scheduled meetings of the Council);
- direct that, for a period of up to, but not exceeding, 2 months on a date specified by the Council the Councillor:
 - be removed from any position where the Councillor represents the Council; and
 - to not chair or attend any advisory committee or special committee meeting or an assembly of Councillors or any other meeting specified in the direction.

A Councillor who does not participate in the internal resolution procedure may be guilty of misconduct. The Act provides that misconduct by a Councillor means any of the following:

- (a) failure by a Councillor to comply with the Council's internal resolution procedure; or
- (b) failure by a Councillor to comply with a written direction given by the Council under section 81AB; or
- (c) repeated contravention of any of the Councillor conduct principles.

Allegations of misconduct are heard on application by a Councillor Conduct Panel.

In the event that reconciliation of the dispute is not possible after (PCO) intervention, the (PCO) will seek assistance from the Principal Councillor Conduct Registrar (PCCR) to resolve the issue, whilst providing support to the parties of the dispute. The (PCCR) will convene a conduct panel.

A Councillor Conduct Panel will be able to:

- (a) Discipline a Councillor by reprimand, direct an apology or require the Councillor to take up to two months leave of absence;
- (b) Require remedial action, including mediation, training or counselling; or
- (c) Refer a matter to VCAT

The Local Government Act 1989 prescribes how Councillor Conduct Panels are established and function when required to assist Council to enforce its Code of Conduct.

17. Disputes Between Members of the Public and Councillors

Where a complaint is received from the public in respect of a Councillor, the matter will be referred to the Mayor for consideration. Where the Mayor determines a breach of the Councillor Code of Conduct has occurred, the Mayor will progress the matter in accordance with this dispute resolution process detailed herein. Where the complaint involves the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor will progress the matter in accordance with this dispute resolution process.

18. Disputes Between Councillors and Staff

The CEO has sole responsibility for the management of Council staff. In the event of a dispute between a Councillor and a member of Council staff, it must be brought to the immediate attention of the Chief Executive Officer. The CEO will investigate the dispute further.

19. Human Rights Charter

Elected councillors have an important role to play in ensuring council business reflects a human rights perspective. It is therefore essential that councillors maintain awareness of the relevance of the Charter to the work of Council, and improve their understanding of how they are expected to make decisions and act in a way which is compatible with the Charter.

All members of the community, Councillors and Council staff will be treated honestly and fairly in a manner that is not discriminatory on the basis of gender, religion, race or contrary to the Equal Opportunity Act and the Victorian Charter of Human Rights, and which in no way causes undue offence or embarrassment to individuals or groups.
