Dear Oakley Customer,

Thank you for your interest in Oakley, Inc. Products. As a Global Leader in performance products, offering a range of products for our athletes and loyal consumers we are committed to delivering high quality goods in a responsible manner that meet and/or exceed any regulations for all respective destinations we conduct business in.

At Oakley we are committed to the following strict product safety guidelines, including but not limited to; CPSIA, REACH, FTC, China GB, Canada Consumer Products Act, Korea KC, and many more.

We've partnered with accredited 3rd party labs for testing and certifications. We've developed a robust testing program that commences at all stages of development and production.

Best regards,

Xavier Laforge
