

How the owner requested it

How the project manager understood it

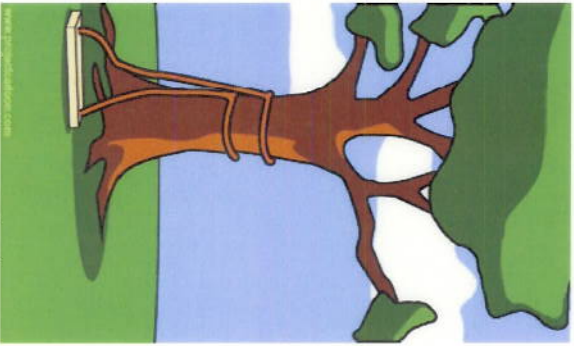

How the architect designed it

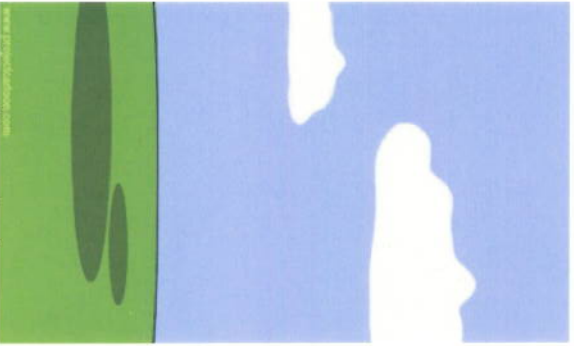

What the contractor bid

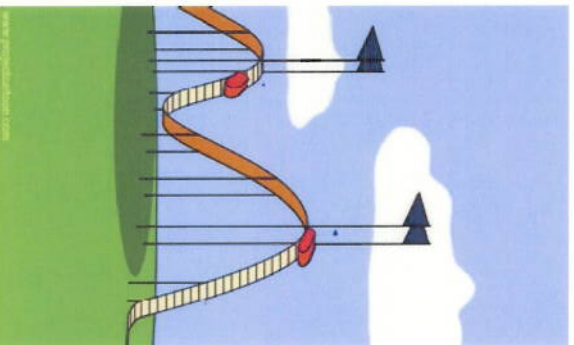

How the marketing team described it

How the contractor installed it

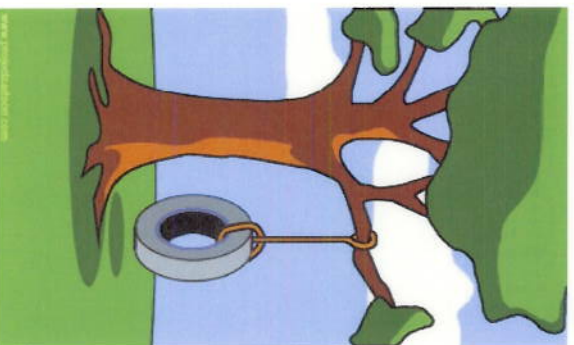

How the project was documented

How the owner was billed

When it was delivered

What the owner really wanted