Tribute & Message From The Family

Richard C. Warner, 89, of Grants Pass died Saturday July 5, 2014 at his home.

A private family graveside service will be held at a later date.

Grants Pass Funeral Alternatives is in charge of arrangements.

Richard was born December 8, 1924 in Myrtle Point to Roland and Margaret Warner.

He served in the Navy.

He married Sylvia Ward in February 1946 in Alhambra, California. She preceded him in death.

He worked as a civil engineer for Cal Trans and supervised the construction of the Hwy 199 tunnel project in the early 1960's.

He moved to Grants Pass from the San Diego area in 2011.

He was a volunteer at the San Diego Railroad Museum and enjoyed sailing and geology.

He is survived by

Son Roderick Warner of Cave Junction

Sister Donna Obert of Dallas

5 grand children

2 great grandchildren

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Clio Gatt in 2012

Condolence & Memory Journal

He was such a kind hearted man to whom I've always looked up. I am honored to be a part of his bloodline. My head is held high and my heart is full in remembrance of my grandfather.
