

TERRELL WALLACE FEISTEL

1932-2015

Terry Feistel went to heaven on November 2nd, nine years following open heart surgery. He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Sally, and children Laura, Scott, and Dan, and grandchildren Ellie, Rebecca, Daniel, Henry, Anna, Esther, and Gideon, who all brought him much joy. He was a generous and loving husband, father, and grandfather and loved his savior, Jesus Christ and the Bible.

Born to Karl and Mable Feistel in Oklahoma City, he enjoyed model airplanes from age 6. At 16, his flying wing project, won him a National Science Fair Award. He chose to attend Cal Tech after receiving 3 scholarship offers. He earned a B.S. in Physics and an M.S. in Aeronautics.

Terry worked in the Aerospace Industry at Lockheed, Boeing, and primarily at NASA Ames Research Center. He loved airplane and automobile design, excelled at mechanical projects, and especially enjoyed tinkering with model airplanes.

He raised his family in Los Altos Hills on the Peninsula for over 30 years, and spent the last 20 years in the Carmel area.
