

Morand, Paul Raymond, 71 of Rohnert Park, California has passed away. Born in Los Angeles, California, Paul grew up in Marin County and attended The Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut. He went on to attend California Institute of Technology in Pasadena where he graduated with a B.S. in Biology. Paul worked in medical research at Children's Hospital of San Francisco, followed by 31 years of photonics research and development at Deposition Sciences, Inc. of Santa Rosa. Paul's hobbies included gardening, writing, and the Scottish Highland athletics. Quick to make friends, Paul enjoyed sharing his sunny disposition, sense of humor, and love of good food with all. Preceded in death by his sister Denise Haffner. Survived by his wife of 47 years, Linda Zulch Morand; son Andre of Cotati (Jay Walsh); and siblings Michelle Kaufman of San Rafael (Kimball), Michael Morand of Sonoma, and Nancy Wendell of Folsom. A celebration of life will follow later in 2022. If desired, friends may make a donation in his memory to Memorial Hospice of Santa Rosa.
