

WORKSHOPPE AGREEMENT

Rose Farm agrees to offer hands-on workshops in exchange for payment by the guest according to the following terms and conditions:

SAFETY: Culinary, art, horticulture + wellness workshops at Rose Farm are hands-on and guests are required to use various utensils and equipment. We are committed to safety and health at all times, especially in the kitchen. Guests are supervised at all times and participation at times involves using knives and other sharp utensils. Guests will be working with, and in, close proximity to kitchen equipment, including but not limited to, hot surfaces and therefore Rose Farm cannot guarantee an injury-free or risk-free environment. Workshops may also involve the handling of raw food items, including meat. Safe sanitary practices will be reviewed with the guests. By enrolling in Rose Farm workshops, and by submitting this form, the guest hereby releases and covenants not to sue Rose Farm, its owners, members, agents, employees, representatives and assigns, from any and all liability for injuries and/or damages, regardless of cause or fault, incurred in connection with or arising out of attendance or participation in a Rose Farm workshop or event.

SCHEDULING: Rose Farm reserves the right to cancel workshops and provide a full refund when class minimum registration numbers are not met.

PAYMENT + CANCELLATIONS: Workshop fees are non-refundable unless the class is cancelled. Special planning + careful preparation goes into making your workshop experience an exceptional one.

MEDICAL CONSENT: By signing this form, the guest gives permission for medical treatment to be administered by a qualified medical professional in the event of an emergency. The signer authorizes Rose Farm to act on behalf of, and in the best interest of, the guest.

GUEST RESPONSIBILITIES: Guests are expected to show respect for others and abide by all workshop rules + guidelines. Rose Farm reserves the right to decline a guest's return if their behavior is deemed inappropriate.

I acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to be bound by all terms and conditions in this agreement, and that I have legal authority to enter into this agreement.
