

CONTENTS

Introduction	ix
About this Book	ix
Background	x
1. Americanized Marxism and Critical Race Theory	1
The Fundamentals of Marxism and Postmodernism	1
Critical Race Theory	5
The Indianization of Critical Race Theory	8
The Americanization of Caste: Caste Considered the Architecture of Global Racism	11
Hindu Dharma Dismissed as a Frozen and Abusive System	19
Ignoring Other Caste Systems	22
Dismantling Hindu Dharma is Considered Necessary	25
2. Breaking the Indian Institutes of Technology: The Evolution of Scholarship	28
The French Connection	28
The Delhi School of Economics	30
Harvard University	33
3. Attacking Meritocracy at the Indian Institutes of Technology	41
Overview	41
The Origin of Western Meritocracy	43
A History of Separating Artisans and Engineers in India	44

Merit Considered a Form of Cultural Capital	47
Entrance Exams Conceal Caste Privileges	52
Merit as Male Dominated Capitalism	53
Institutional Kinship Among IITians and Brand
Development Considered Casteist	53
Attack on Silicon Valley	56
Breaking Ranks with Afro-Dalits	58
The Politics of Jawaharlal Nehru v/s Narendra Modi	59
Concerns with Ajantha Subramanian's Thesis	61
4. Indian Americans Equated with White Racists	65
Overview	65
Compiling US Databases of Indian American Caste Abuses	66
Litigations on Caste in the United States of America	72
The US Technology Industry	73
American Colleges and Universities	78
American Local Governments	80
Issues and Challenges	83
Globalizing the Dalit Empowerment Movement	84
A Silver Lining	87
5. Ashoka University and the Shanghai
Meritocracy Workshop	88
6. Conversation between Rajiv Malhotra and
IIT Madras Faculty	93
Allegation That the IITs Were Founded as Elite Places
with Big Budgets	94
Theory of Caste as Cultural Capital	95
Is Caste Relevant at IITs?	97
Allegation: Focus is on Computer Science So Brahmins
Do Not Dirty Their Hands	98
Anti-meritocracy	98
Impact on Competitiveness	99

Methodological Flaws in Scholarship	100
Issues with Social Sciences	101
Implications of This Battle in India and Globally	102
The IITs are Unprepared to Face the Challenge	105
7. Battle for Higher Education: Social Sciences Versus Hard Sciences	107
Wokeism Enters Research and Higher Education	110
Social Scientists Become the Sustainability Police	111
Pushback in American Academia	115
Necessity for a Debate in India	119
Endnotes	123
Acknowledgments	133
Bibliography	135
Index	141