

ROLE MODEL BIO:

LEARNING GOALS:

- I will make connections between a role model's life experiences and my own

SUCCESS CRITERIA:

- I can identify 3 specific actions that helped Diana achieve their goals
- I can connect examples of these themes to my actions in my own life

IDENTIFY Some of the themes below are discussed in the Fireside Chat with Diana Miller

resourcefulness

sewing and clothing design

self-expression

humility

positive support systems

How have these themes have been present in Diana's life?

- Listen to the interview
- Record notes of relevant themes and examples

CONNECT Reflect on your own journey. Where do these themes appear in your own life?

Discuss with a friend or family member. Record your connections in writing, drawing or with music.

“Definitely my younger self...would be to not compare yourself to others. To not believe people when they say that ‘you don’t know what you’re talking about’ or ‘you’re not good enough’ ”.

-Diana Miller

EXTEND Diana discusses overcoming inexperience and ageism as a major obstacle in her career and personal life.

How do you experience agism?

How can you respond in a positive, productive way?
