

ROLE MODEL BIO:

Diane Roussin is an Anishinaabe □□□□□ community leader passionately committed to the pursuit of mino bimaadiziwin (the good life) for all families and children. Her in-depth knowledge of Indigenous issues and solutions flow directly from her strong sense of identity and worldview. Diane is a proud member of Skownan First Nation, Agowidiwinan Treaty 2 Territory. She is currently the Project Director of The Winnipeg Boldness Project.

LEARNING GOALS:

- I will make connections between a role model's life experiences and my own

SUCCESS CRITERIA:

- I can identify 3 specific actions that helped Diane achieve her goals
- I can connect examples of these themes to my actions in my own life

IDENTIFY Some of the themes below are discussed in the Fireside Chat with Diane Roussin

powerful female role models

Indigenous knowledge systems humility

helping others & asking for help

resiliency

family

How have these themes have been present in Diane's life?

- Listen to the interview
- Record notes of relevant themes and examples

CONNECT Reflect on your own journey. Where do these themes appear in your own life?

Discuss with a friend or family member. Record your connections in writing, drawing or with music.

"I try my best. I give it my all. I bring the courage"

-Diane Roussin

EXTEND Diane found a career that lines up with and supports her personal values.

How will your future career help support and uplift your personal values?