

ROLE MODEL BIO:

LEARNING GOALS:

- I will make connections between a role model's life experiences and my own

SUCCESS CRITERIA:

- I can identify 3 specific actions that helped Kayla achieve their goals
- I can connect examples of these themes to my actions in my own life

IDENTIFY Some of the themes below are discussed in the Fireside Chat with Kayla Maurice

social justice work ethic

community support
ceremony and culture

How have these themes been present in Kayla's life?

- Listen to the interview
- Record notes of relevant themes and examples

CONNECT Reflect on your own journey. Where do these themes appear in your own life?

Discuss with a friend or family member. Record your connections in writing, drawing or with music.

"Take your time. Not to feel rushed into taking a program".

-Kayla Maurice

EXTEND Kayla has always been interested in pursuing a career in the justice system and spent several years involved in many different roles within it, including police foundations, corrections and a case support worker.

What subjects are you passionate about?

How many different careers can stem from pursuing this subject?

Make a mind map with your favourite subject in the middle. Research careers and programs associated with it. How many exist? Where do you see yourself within this map? Why?