

ROLE MODEL BIO:

Sino General, aka Chief Rock is a hip-hop artist hailing from the Six Nations. A member of the Cayuga nation. As a hip hop artist, Sino has always pushed the standards of music. He has inspired many with his gifts. His passion for performance has brought him to many countries all around the world. Sino's sobering lyrics have been his drive in his music world. His musical evolution is just the beginning for this award nominated artist, who's newest journey has truly, only just begun

LEARNING GOALS:

- I will make connections between a role model's life experiences and my own

SUCCESS CRITERIA:

- I can identify 3 specific actions that helped Sino achieve his goals
- I can connect examples of these themes to my actions in my own life

IDENTIFY Some of the themes below are discussed in the Fireside Chat with Sino General.

determination

artistic expression & Indigenous hip-hop ceremony & culture

hope for the future

growth mindset

How have these themes have been present in Sino's life?

- Listen to the interview
- Record notes of relevant themes and examples

CONNECT Reflect on your own journey. Where do these themes appear in your own life?

Discuss with a friend or family member. Record your connections in writing, drawing or with music.

“Always have a back up skill to support yourself”

-Sino General

EXTEND Sino General wished he had made a portfolio to showcase his talents when starting out.

How are you documenting your unique skills and talents? Build a portfolio!
Start today by keeping artifacts and anecdotes of your work in a shoebox.