

Daniel Swan

Call: 2012

PRACTICE OVERVIEW

Daniel practices in family and civil law. His family practice focuses on private law children matters and financial disputes arising from relationship breakdown. In addition, he is instructed in public law proceedings, usually on behalf of local authorities and often in complex finding of fact hearings.

Daniel's civil practice includes dealing with disputes between unmarried couples following separation (TOLATA) and Probate, Succession and Trust matters.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Daniel worked in offshore corporate management in Hong Kong. This gave him a detailed knowledge and understanding of the use, structure and function of offshore companies, double taxation treaties and anti-money laundering regulations.

PRACTICE AREAS

Children

Daniel acts at all stages in Children Act proceedings. He has substantial experience acting in complex finding of fact hearings dealing with issues such as sexual abuse, domestic violence, non-accidental injuries, fabricated induced illness and failure to protect.

He often deals with matters with an international element and where jurisdiction issues arise.

Daniel regularly instructed in matters where there are concurrent Children Act and Financial Remedies proceedings, which gives client's consistency of representation.

Financial Remedies

Daniel undertakes the full range of work associated with financial disputes following relationship breakdown.
