

Creative Activity Guide

Fun ideas to inspire your child's creativity!

Air Guitar Competition

Any rock stars in the house? Have an air guitar competition as you rock out to your favorite songs! Vote on who has the sweetest moves and crown them rock-n-roll royalty!

Sound Safari

Tired of being cooped up inside? Take a break and go on a Sound Safari! You can go to the park or even your own backyard. Listen together to see what sounds you can hear. Birds chirping? Frogs hopping? See how many sounds you can find in the wild!

See Live Musicians

Do you have aspiring musicians in your family? Going out to see live music will inspire them and spark their imagination! Look up some local concerts and live music venues or take a trip to a town square and hear street performers!

Visit an Art Museum

In the mood for an adventure? Hop in the car and take a trip to your local art museum! The variety of paintings, sculptures, and interactive displays will inspire creativity and interesting discussion for you and your kiddos!

Create Your Own Instruments

Shake things up! Grab an empty water bottle and some rice or beans and create your very own shaker! Then get creative and use construction paper, paint, glue and markers to personalize your new instrument!

Write a New Song

Does your child like making up their own songs? Then they'll love this! Choose their favorite song and create new lyrics for it (using the original melody). You can even write them down and have a performance to show off their new and improved version!

Play Charades: Zoo Edition!

Do your little ones love to move? Well this is the perfect activity for them! Write down different zoo animals on a sheet of paper. Cut out and toss all your strips of paper into a bowl or hat, and play a fun game of Zoo Animal Charades!

Paint to the Music

If you have young artists, they are bound to love this activity. Grab some paper, some paint, and cue up your favorite songs! As each song plays, have your child paint what they hear. Is it a happy song? A sad song? Feel free to use any art medium.
