The Edge Picture Company

The Edge is an international corporate film production company. For over 25 years their clients have trusted them to tell their stories, by creating fresh ideas or by simply asking the right questions.

The Edge is an international corporate film production company, with offices in the UK, Qatar and South Africa. They are a company of 65 people, motivated by a shared passion for film-making and driven by a single focus: To produce inspiring films that tell their clients' stories in unforgettable ways.

Founded in 1991 in London, the Edge have got a wealth of experience in corporate film-making around the world, which they bring to bear on every project they undertake in order to come up with fresh, innovative solutions that best meet their clients' demands.

Their success has been built on long-term relationships with leading names across a wide spectrum of industries. Key clients include: British Gas, Qatargas, Qatar Foundation, McDonalds, Network Rail, Rolls Royce, Shell, Tesco, Transport for London, Unilever and Vodafone.

"To say that I was impressed by The Edge is an understatement. Everything ran so smoothly, the organisation was flawless and the whole team were great people to be around. It was a very welcome and refreshing change for me to be dealt with so professionally at a shoot".

Jonathan Barrett, Manager, People Development
Lloyds Banking Group

"I very much appreciate the high quality of work, expertise of the team and the dedication needed to complete our most complex projects"

Andrew Dando, Head of Digital and Social Media
Rolls-Royce

"Thank you for the fantastic job you did in making our most recent film. I personally think that it is the best I've seen"!

Chris Reid, Customer Services Marketing Manager
