AZ PAVILLON DES LETTRES

Set behind the rue du Faubourg St Honoré, Pavillon des lettres is perfectly located for some of Paris' most famous landmarks, a short walk from the Champs-Élysées, the Jardin des Tuileries and Le Louvre.

The hotel is based on a novel concept: it has 26 rooms, one for each letter of the alphabet. Each is dedicated to different writer, from A for Andersen to Z for Zola. Lines from a poem, play or text are hand-stencilled above the bed to form an integral part of the design in every room.

The hotel is classically French; elegant and modern with picture-perfect views over the rooftops of Paris to the Eiffel Tower.

12, rue des Saussaies, 75008 Paris - France

Hôtel du Petit Moulin

The hotel is set in the heart of the Marais, the oldest quartier in Paris. The area is lively and trendy, and full of wonderful boutiques, galleries, fascinating museums, atmospheric cafes and restaurants.

The 17th century building was originally home to Paris' first bakery where Victor Hugo would come to buy his baguette - the 1900 shop frontage is listed as part of French heritage by Historic Monuments.
