FEN Publication Guide

Basically, before publishing anything, it should be checked whether the publication is not including protected, patentable inventions. If necessary, apply for a patent at least in Germany before publishing.

1. Publications from FEN Research Campus Projects

1.1 Article or paper in conference proceedings or journals

In publications, usually in the "Acknowledgements" or "Danksagung" section, a note needs to be included:
in German: "Gefördert durch das Bundesministerium für Bildung und Forschung (BMBF, FKZ###), Forschungscampus Flexible Elektrische Netze (FEN)" in English: "Funded by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF, FKZ####), Flexible Electrical Networks (FEN) Research Campus"

Note that newly the name is now „Flexible Electrical Networks" (German: „Flexible Elektrische Netze") and that in English „Forschungcampus" is translated to „Research Campus", succeeding the name.

1.2 Presentations, Poster, etc.

Here, the respective note "Gefördert durch:" (or in English "Funded by:") in combination with the BMBF logo and Forschungscampus logo need to be added as well as the FEN logo.

Please use the provided poster and PowerPoint Template (→ General Downloads).

The funding codes (FKZ) are:

Project abbreviation	Funding code (FKZ)
DC-Sozio-Ökonomik	03SFO592
Flex Grids	03SF0593
DC-Sek	03SF0594A
ESCape	03SFO595
Scale	03SFO596A
InEEd-DC	03SF0597

2. Publications from Seed-Fund-Projects

Do not use the BMBF logos here!
