

NAME

Anna Fox

EMAIL

Anna.Fox@orielchambers.co.uk

YEAR OF CALL

1986

AREAS OF LAW

Family Law

OVERVIEW

Anna has a wealth of experience covering all areas of family and co-habitation law. She acts for parents, grandparents, Children's Guardians and Local Authorities in Public Law cases.

She has a reputation for a straightforward and sympathetic approach to her clients which is appreciated by those that instruct her. Anna is the enthusiastic leader of the Family Team and takes great pride in their Seminar programme which is widely regarded as the best in the Northwest.

EDUCATION

- University of Liverpool. Inns of Court School of Law
- 2013 BPP Holborn LLM Res – Company Law
- 2008 Lancaster University LLB (Hons)
- 2007 Lancaster University

APPOINTMENTS AND AWARDS

- Middle Temple

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Middle Temple
- Family Law Bar Association
- Merseyside Medico-Legal Society.

FAMILY LAW

Matrimonial Finance, Children's proceedings in Public Law and Private Law.TOLATA claims. Trained in SEND Tribunal work.

The Defendant was successful on appeal in overturning the prior order granting relief from sanction where the Claimant had failed to file their costs budget on time, necessitating a further hearing.

On appeal the court held that that the Claimant's failure to hold an MOT in relation to his damaged vehicle did not prevent him from hiring a credit hire vehicle with an MOT under the principle of betterment.

The Defendant was successful on appeal in overturning the prior order granting relief from sanction where the Claimant had failed to file their costs budget on time, necessitating a further hearing.

On appeal the court held that that the Claimant's failure to hold an MOT in relation to his damaged vehicle did not prevent him from hiring a credit hire vehicle with an MOT under the principle of betterment.

The Defendant was successful on appeal in overturning the prior order granting relief from sanction where the Claimant had failed to file their costs budget on time, necessitating a further hearing.

The Defendant was successful on appeal in overturning the prior order granting relief from sanction where the Claimant had failed to file their costs budget on time, necessitating a further hearing.

On appeal the court held that that the Claimant's failure to hold an MOT in relation to his damaged vehicle did not prevent him from hiring a credit hire vehicle with an MOT under the principle of betterment.

The Defendant was successful on appeal in overturning the prior order granting relief from sanction where the Claimant had failed to file their costs budget on time, necessitating a further hearing.