OVERVIEW

During her years at the Bar Suzanne has developed a specialized Practice in Family Law taking on all forms of family work including Public Law Children, Private Law Children and applications for Financial Orders.

In the Public Law arena she acts predominantly for parents, appearing in cases involving a wide range of key issues including neglect, addictions, non-accidental injury, domestic violence, mental health etc. In Private Law Children cases Suzanne acts for parents involved in the sometimes complex and distressing process of resolving the arrangements for their children post separation. In finance cases Suzanne deals with both modest and high asset worth cases.

Suzanne has three children and when there is time to do so loves art and creative writing!
