Underwriters will advise the Insured Person of their decision within a reasonable time frame following receipt of additional documentation and facts.

E. US Preferred Medical Provider Network - Underwriters, via the Plan Administrator, endeavor to maintain contractual arrangements with one or more independent Preferred Provider Organizations (PPO) that have established and maintain networks of US-based Physicians, Hospitals and other Medical Providers who are contracted separately and directly with the PPO and who may provide re-pricings, discounts or reduced charges for services and/or supplies provided to the Insured Person. Neither Underwriters nor the Plan Administrator have any authority or control over the operations or business of the PPO, or over the operations or business of any provider within the PPO network. Neither the PPO, nor any provider within the PPO network, nor any of their respective agents, employees or representatives has or shall have any power or authority whatsoever to act for or on behalf of Underwriters or the Plan Administrator in any respect. It is not a requirement of this insurance that the Insured Person seek services or supplies exclusively from a provider within the independent PPO network.

1. Freedom of choice - Nothing contained in this insurance restricts or interferes with the Insured Person's right to select the Hospital, Physician or other Medical Provider of his/her choice. Nothing contained in this insurance restricts or interferes with the relationship between the Insured Person and the Hospital, Physician or other Medical Providers with respect to treatment of any condition, or the right of any Insured Person to receive, at his or her own expense, services and/or supplies that are not covered under this insurance.
2. Reduction of benefits - The Insured Person's use or non-use of the PPO network will affect the scope and extent of benefits available under this insurance in the form of additional Coinsurance, as specified in the Schedule of Benefits and Limits. An Insured Person may contact the Plan Administrator and request a PPO directory for the area where he/she will be receiving medical care, or may visit the Plan Administrator's website to obtain such information.

F. Patient Advocacy - Neither Underwriters nor the Plan Administrator shall have any right, obligation or authority of any kind to ultimately select Physicians, Hospitals, Medical Providers or other providers of services and/or supplies for the Insured Person, or to make any medical treatment decisions for or on behalf of the Insured Person, and all such decisions shall be made solely and exclusively by the Insured Person and/or his/her guardians, Relatives, Physicians and other Medical Providers. Subject to the foregoing, Underwriters may determine that a particular claim or diagnosis occurring under this insurance may be placed under the Patient Advocacy program to ensure that Medically Necessary services and supplies are provided in the most cost-effective manner. In the event Underwriters determine that a claim or diagnosis meets the Patient Advocacy program guidelines, they will notify the Insured Person, and a Patient Advocate will be assigned to the Insured Person. Thereafter, the Patient Advocate may make recommendations of alternative treatment settings and/or procedures and/or supplies, that may be more cost-effective for the Underwriters and/or the Insured Person.

Such recommendations will be made with input from the Insured Person and/or the Insured Person's guardian(s), Relative(s), Physician(s) and/or other Medical Providers and will be made only when it can be reasonably demonstrated that the Medically Necessary services and supplies can be provided in a more cost-effective manner to Underwriters and/or the Insured Person.

Underwriters will use best efforts to evaluate and recommend alternative treatment settings and/or procedures and/or supplies, which can reasonably be expected to result in the same or better care of the Insured Person. The Insured Person is under no obligation to accept or follow any of the Patient Advocate's recommendations. However, if the Insured Person accepts and follows any of the Patient Advocate's recommendations, the Insured Person agrees to hold Underwriters, the Plan Administrator, and their agents and representatives, including without limitation the Patient Advocate, harmless, and Underwriters shall not be held liable or otherwise responsible for any treatment, service or supply provided to the Insured Person except for the payment of claims eligible for coverage under this insurance. After the Insured Person has been notified that the claim or diagnosis meets the Patient Advocacy program guidelines, Underwriters reserve the right, at their option and sole discretion without liability to:

1. Make payment for treatments, services and/or supplies which are not covered under this insurance which may be beneficial to the Insured Person and cost effective to Underwriters; and/or any provision herein, this will not invalidate, modify or render such provision unenforceable at any other time, whether or not the circumstances are the same.
2. Deny coverage for expenses, including without limitation Eligible Medical Expenses, otherwise eligible for coverage but for the terms of this provision, which exceed the amount Underwriters would have paid had the Insured Person followed the recommendations of the Patient Advocacy program.

Should the Assured or Insured Person fail to prosecute any valid claims against any such third party(ies) and Underwriters thereupon become liable to make payment under this insurance, then Underwriters shall be fully subrogated to all rights and interests of the Assured and Insured Person. The Assured and Insured Person agree to include Underwriters as co-payee on any settlement check or check from any third party or insurer. The Assured and Insured Person agree that he/she will not release any party or their insured without prior written approval from Underwriters and will take no action which prejudices Underwriters' rights. Any amount recovered by Underwriters in accordance with this provision shall be used to pay the expenses of collection and reimbursement of Underwriters for any amount that it may have paid or become liable to pay under this insurance. Any remaining amounts shall be paid to the Insured Person. In the event the Insured Person receives any form or type of settlement and either fails or refuses to abide by the terms of this provision, in addition to any other remedies Underwriters may have, Underwriters retain a right of equitable offset against future claims.

P. Right of Recovery

Underwriters have the right to recover the amount of overpayment of any claim, from the Insured Person and/or the Hospital, Physician, Medical Provider or other provider of services or supplies, for any reason, including without limitation, the following:

1. All or some of the expenses were not paid for by or on behalf of the Insured Person or were subsequently recovered by, or determined to be recoverable by or on behalf of the Insured Person.
2. The Insured Person and/or any Relative of the Insured Person, whether or not that Relative is or was an Insured Person, is repaid or is entitled to be repaid for all or some of any claim paid by Underwriters, in accordance with PART IV. 5. All or some of the claim has been excused, waived, abandoned, forfeited, discounted or released by the provider.
6. The Insured Person is not liable or responsible as a matter of law for all or part of the claim.

The amount of the recovery shall be the difference between: (i) the amount actually paid Underwriters; and (ii) the amount, if any, which should have been paid by Underwriters. If the Insured Person or the Hospital, Physician, Medical Provider or other provider of services or supplies does not promptly make any such refund to Underwriters, Underwriters may, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to them (all of which are reserved), either: (i) reduce or deduct from the amount of any future claim that is otherwise eligible for payment hereunder, to the full extent of the refund due Underwriters; and/or (ii) cancel the Certificate issued to the Insured Person by giving thirty (30) days advance written notice and offset against the amount of any refund of premium due the Insured Person to the full extent of the refund due to Underwriters.

Q. Duty of FairPresentation

In accordance with the Insurance Act 2015, the Assured and each Insured Person has a duty to make a fair presentation of all material facts and circumstances known to them regarding insurance hereunder to Underwriters.

1. If, prior to the Master Policy Effective Date or any Certificate Effective Date, the Assured or Insured Person breaches their duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to Underwriters are as follows:

- a. If the breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless, Underwriters may avoid the Master Policy, either altogether or, at Underwriters' discretion, only with respect to the Insured Person, and refuse to pay all claims or all claims by or on behalf of the Insured Person; they need not return any of the premiums paid.
- b. If the breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, Underwriters' remedy depends upon what Underwriters would have done if the Assured and/or Insured Person had complied with the duty of fair presentation, as follows:
 - i. If Underwriters would not have entered into the Master Policy or would not have accepted the Insured Person's Application at all, Underwriters may avoid the Master Policy, either altogether or, at Underwriters' discretion, only with respect to the Insured Person, and refuse to pay all claims or all claims by or on behalf of the Insured Person; Underwriters must return the premiums paid.
 - ii. If Underwriters would have entered into the Master Policy or accepted the Insured Person's Application but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the Master Policy or, at Underwriters discretion, only coverage with respect to the Insured Person, will be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset, if Underwriters so require.

c. In addition, if Underwriters would have entered into the Master Policy or accepted the Insured Person's Application, but would have charged a higher premium, Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and, if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims) made by or on behalf of the Insured Person. In those circumstances, Underwriters shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

2. If, prior to entering into a variation to the Master Policy, the Assured or Insured Person breaches their duty of fair presentation, the remedies available Underwriters are as follows:

- a. If the breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless Underwriters may, by notice to the Assured or Insured Person, treat the Master Policy altogether or, at Underwriters' discretion, only with respect to the Insured Person, as having been terminated as of the time when the variation was concluded; Underwriters need not return any of the premiums paid.
- b. If the breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, Underwriters' remedy depends upon what Underwriters would have done if the Assured or Insured Person had complied with the duty of fair presentation:
 - i. If Underwriters would not have agreed to the variation at all, Underwriters may treat the Master Policy, either altogether or, at Underwriters' discretion, only with respect to the Insured Person, as if the variation was never made, but must in that event return any extra premium paid as a result of said variation.
 - ii. If Underwriters would have agreed to the variation to the Master Policy, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the variation is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if Underwriters so require.
 - iii. If Underwriters would have increased the premium by more than it did or at all, then Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events which occur after the variation. In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.
 - iv. If Underwriters would not have reduced the premium as much as it did or at all, then Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/reduced total premium}) \times 100$.

c. Nothing in provision is intended to vary the applicable provisions of the Insurance Act 2015.

R. Fraudulent Claims

If the Assured or any Insured Person makes a fraudulent claim under the Master Policy, Underwriters:

1. Are not liable to pay the claim.
2. May recover from the Assured or any Insured Person any sums paid by Underwriters to the Assured or to or for the benefit of any Insured Person, in respect of the claim.
3. May, by notice to the Assured and the Insured Person, treat the Master Policy, either altogether or, at Underwriters' discretion, only with respect to the Insured Person, as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.
4. If Underwriters exercise their right under this provision:
