

Pastor's Message: All Saints' Day

With All Saints' Sunday on November 5th, I thought I'd give you some history and background on this Feast Day. The following comes from Celebrating the Saints by William Weedon (2016). Enjoy.

*For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.*

Alleluia! Alleluia!

*O blest communion, fellowship divine,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.*

Alleluia! Alleluia! (LSB 677: 1, 4)

With overflowing joy, the Church of Jesus Christ celebrates the Feast of All Saints' Day.

The Feast of All Saints' is one of the principal feasts of Christ. Many congregations observe the custom of transferring it to the first Sunday in November each year so that a maximal number of people may join in its joyful celebration.

All Saints' was originally observed in the West as All Martyrs' in the spring. Since the number of those who have laid down their lives in the confession of Christ far outnumbers the days available in the Church's yearly round, All Martyrs' served as a sort of catchall. Pope Gregory III, bishop of Rome from AD 731 to 741, expanded the feast further to embrace all saints and ordered it observed on November 1. A similar Feast of All Saints, is observed in the Easter Church calendar on the Sunday following Pentecost.

The joy of this particular feast is in its celebration of the unity of the Church Triumphant (the saints gathered already into rest) and the Church Militant (the present and future Church that struggles still under daily crosses). Together, both constitute but one communion, one fellowship.

They are the crowd glimpsed in the reading from Revelation for this day, a vast multitude beyond human numbering and calculation. What makes them one is what they have received from the Lord: They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Their sins are forgiven and they hold the palm of victory He has placed in their hand.

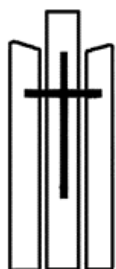

If you look at the crowd, you can readily discern that some were among earth's famous and powerful. Most were quite unknown to history. There are some black, some white, and every color of flesh of humanity. Some were very wealthy upon earth; most quite poor. Some spoke this language, others that. They come from every nation and tribe. What is most captivating about them, however, isn't their diversity; it's the unity of their attention. They aren't paying the last bit of attention to themselves. They are united in their gaze upon the Lamb on His throne, the Lord Jesus Christ victorious in His sacrifice of love. And therein lies the secret to becoming part of that crowd. You do so not by squeezing in and trying to imitate the look of astonishment and awe upon their faces. Rather you share their blessedness by joining in what they are so fixed upon: Jesus Christ, who humbled Himself to become what they were (a child of man) in order to lift them up to become what He is (children of God).

Almighty and everlasting God, You knit together Your faithful people of all times and places into one holy communion, the mystical Body of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that, together with them, we may come to the unspeakable joys You have prepared for those who love You; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Your Fellow Servant in Christ,

St. John Congregational Voters' Meeting, Sunday, November 12th

Dear St. John Family,

You, our church family, are incredibly loving and hospitable both to fellow members and to anyone who passes through the door of our church. As your congregational president, I am happy to work with you to serve each other and the community at large.

I am happy to announce the annual voters' meeting for the year will be held on Sunday, November 12th. During that time we will be considering the annual budget and the election and re-election of several members to the Church Council and the Board of Elders. The following positions will be up for election this year:

Vice-President Secretary Evangelism Youth Financial Secretary Elders

The youth council chair is currently vacant and we would love someone to step into that role and serve the youth of our church. We will also be voting for elders. If you feel the desire to care for members, visit the sick and homebound, and support Pastor, please step up to be considered as an elder. If this is you, please contact Brandon Booth or Pastor Dan.

Nathan Pegors,
Council President

Evangelism Budget for 2024

Before we meet on November 12th, I would like to clarify a few items listed in the Evangelism budget.

The Lutheran Hour: $3,900 - St. John supports this 93 year old LCMS organization that broadcasts sermons weekly throughout the world. Tune to 1400 on your radio Sunday mornings at 8:00 am.

Publicity: $900 - St. John will have more public exposure in the Cañon City Daily Record and the weekly Fremont 360 digital flip news magazine to publicize our services especially during the Easter and Christmas seasons as well as for special events, such as the garage sale and the car show.

Evangelism Committee: $0 - This is open for funds as needed in the event a committee is formed.

St. John Website: $345 - Events are updated almost daily on the front page of stjohnncanocity.org. People searching for a church online will find our website and have an opportunity to learn about our faith, missions, activities, etc. They can watch worship services through a link to our YouTube channel.

The amount budgeted for Evangelism for 2024 is the same amount as 2023.

Missions

Here is the latest thank you letter and update from the Cañon City Pregnancy Center. (St. John is a long-term supporter). I will contact the director and for an update on their medical transition.

Julie Barrett,
Missions

Dear St. John Lutheran Church,

Thank you so much for your gift to the center, and your amazing faithfulness in serving families in our community! I believe that it can be very helpful to see the fruits of our labor, and at this point in the year, it's good to do a small check-in on our impact on the community. Because of your faithfulness, as of August 1st:
342 client families have been served so far this year. 80 of those clients are new, and 39 of those new clients are under the age of 19. The under-19 age bracket is very impactful to me as I have a home full of teenagers. We look at the faces of these brave young people, and I can see the faces of my own children. Even though we've already seen 342 families walk through the doors, the staff and volunteers at the center would still be here if there was only 1 person needing help. Because every single life matters. The center has provided 21,150 diapers and 252 cans of formula, and including all material services- furniture, clothing, equipment, etc., 45,074 items have gone to homes of families in need.

On a separate note, I would be so honored to be able to meet with a member of your staff and bring the church up to date on where we are in the medical transition. If this is a possibility, please let me know. I am at your service.

Thank you for choosing to be part of this mission field. Thank you for choosing to be part of the greater good. Lives will forever be changed because of your kindness.
Blessings,

November has become the month of Thanksgiving since the Pilgrims began the tradition of celebrating the harvest in 1621. With the recently implemented opportunity for prayers of thanksgiving each Sunday, we are very aware of the many blessings we all share in our congregation, in our community and throughout the world. LWML's tradition is to begin each season with thanksgiving for veterans and for the members in our congregation who are mobility challenged.

On November 12th, we will celebrate our veterans during fellowship. We hope everyone will join LWML in recognizing the selfless service of our veterans. We are thankful for their sacrifices and dedication to our nation.

We are also thankful to members who served our church but are now less active. In November LWML visits these special members and presents them a basket of your gifts. Please contact me if you would like to participate on a visitation team (abw@envalternatives.com). As of late October, we anticipate preparing eight baskets. The In-gathering Box is in the narthex next to the LWML mite box. Suggested basket items include hot chocolate packets, granola bars, raisins, pudding cups, lip balm, lotions, game books, etc. Please don't feel obligated to donate for every basket, any amount is appreciated. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Blessings to All,
Angela Bellantoni

Reformation Potluck: Sunday, October 29th

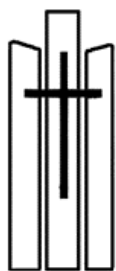

Please get with me if you would like to bring something for the Reformation potluck. You don't have to bring anything; but please let me know if you plan to attend so I may have a head count, thank you. I will make tenderloin with mushrooms and mashed potatoes. Lynn will make a big pot of Sauerkraut. Deborah will make mini cream puffs! Please add some vegetables, and other desserts for the menu. I will provide rye bread, tea, sweet and unsweetened, water, and beer! I will also be at church at 11:30 to set tables on Saturday, October 28th. Anyone who can help set up, please join me. Thank you.

Your Servant in Christ Jesus,
Carol Skoda, St. John Fellowship

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

We will return to standard time at 2am on Sunday November 5th. Before going to bed on Saturday the 4th don't forget to FALL BACK and set your clocks back 1 hour. Enjoy your extra hour of sleep.

Alana's Letter from Concordia - St. Paul: Seeing Red

When I moved to Colorado, I was asked quite frequently "what do you miss most about New York"? My go-to answer was often "the green". In Honeoye Falls, the rain, snow, and humidity were givens. There was moisture when it was needed. Sure, summers often saw plants drying due to a lack of rain. But the rain always came. Spring and Fall were times of color.

Spring showed you lupine and phlox in the ditches, lilac bushes EVERYWHERE, and flowering Apple, Dogwood, Crab Apple, and ornamental trees were common. Fall brought the colors of the sunset. Maples and Sumac turned violent red. Boxelder and Sycamore flamed orange, while Basswood and Honey Locust covered the ground in yellow. Traveling to places like Letchworth Gorge and the Adirondacks specifically see the fall colors was common, while gardens and flowerbeds were cultivated in every front yard to decorate with spring blooms.

And as a constant, underlying all seasons of color, was the green. The grass was green and needed to be mowed weekly (if not more frequently in the spring). You couldn't see your neighbors' house hidden behind a wall of green trees and bushes. Then I moved to Colorado. And I complained. I wanted the same thing I had before, that I had gotten used to.

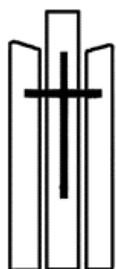

Over the last five years, I came to see the beauty in Colorado. The red rocks in counterpoint to the blue-green cedars and juniper. The all-pervasive BLUE that is the Colorado sky, adding interest to the browns, reds, and greens. Of course, fall shows us the brilliant yellow and white of the Aspen, and the evergreen nature of the pines and cedars.

Last week I had the opportunity to go hiking with a friend in Afton State Park here in Minnesota to see the fall colors. I found that I have missed the reds of Maples and Oaks from my childhood. But I also long for the ever-present mountains always in the corner of my eye. The rapidly changing landscape that a 15-minute drive through Canon City or Colorado Springs can bring you.

I realize now that the one thing that does not change is the beauty of creation all around me. God creates trees and vegetation on the third day. "The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good" (Genesis 1:12). No matter what the plants around us look like, there is beauty and intentionality. God made it and it was good. Take the time to walk in God's creation, and behold all He has made for us.

Here is what is happening at the BOOKClub:

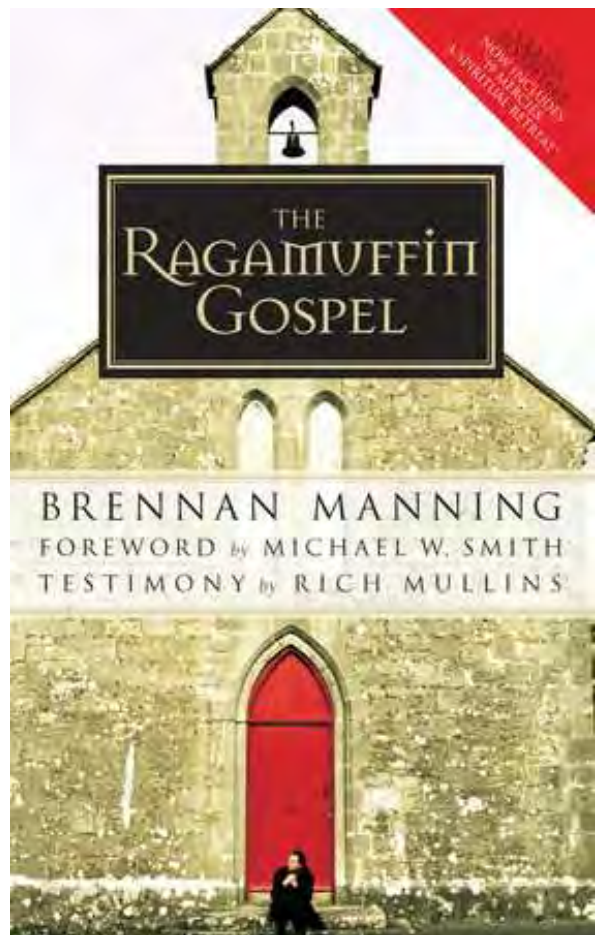

The next book on our list is Ragamuffin Gospel (ISBN 978-1590525029) by Brennan Manning. This book has been on my reading list for several years. I'm glad to finally have the time to read it. The description reads:

Most of us believe in God's grace—in theory. But somehow we can't seem to apply it in our daily lives. We continue to see Him as a small-minded bookkeeper, tallying our failures and successes on a score sheet.

Yet God gives us His grace, willingly, no matter what we've done. We come to Him as ragamuffins—dirty, bedraggled, and beat-up. And when we sit at His feet, He smiles upon us, the chosen objects of His "furious love."

Brennan Manning's now-classic meditation on grace and what it takes to access it—simple honesty—has changed thousands of lives.

"Brennan Manning does a masterful job of blowing the dust off of shop-worn theology and allowing God's grace to do what only God's grace can do—amaze." -Max Lucado, Bestselling author of The Gift for All People

3 copies have been ordered for the church. Used copies are available on Amazon for $6, and a Kindle edition for $13, and an Audible audiobook for $7. If you have any problems finding a copy, please call Pastor Dan.

The date for discussing this book is Wednesday November 8th, 6:30pm @ Ted & Nancy Schmidt's home.

VISITORS

In early September Erik Lunsford, Managing Photojournalist for the LCMS, visited Cambodia. Erik got a slice of missionary life—hanging out with JP and Aimee, attending youth group, and meeting with pastors and leaders of the Cambodia Lutheran Church and other partner organizations. Further, he traveled with JP to Prech Lutheran Church in Chukk, to attend Sunday service followed by a half-day seminar taught by JP. Erik wanted to see firsthand the work of God through His people in Cambodia, and how LCMS is a part of it. He took LOTS of pictures. The end result will be a feature article in LCMS' publication Lutherans Engage. Erik was super-encouraging both to local partners and to our family. We thank God for his visit! We'll share more as the pictures and article become available. PLEASE PRAY they are a blessing to raise awareness of what God is doing in this part of the world!

VIEWS

In mid-September, J.P. traveled again to Prech Lutheran Church. During strategic planning with the Cambodia Lutheran Church (CLC) in the spring, J.P. was asked to expand teaching of Luther's Small Catechism (LSC) to 5 more locations, beginning in Chukk. And so J.P., along with Mr. Khorn Sopha (Director of Lutheran Heritage Foundation in Cambodia, who publishes the LSC), spent two days studying the first of the Six Chief Parts of the Catechism: the 10 Commandments. Pastor Sopheap is blessed with a large youth group, so almost half the participants were high school or college-aged. Discipleship of youth is sorely needed in Cambodia. PLEASE PRAY for J.P. and Sopha as they will travel there three more times to complete the training.

VISION

In late September, Aimee was thankful to travel to Chiayi, Taiwan to participate in regional strategy meetings along with other Asia missionaries. That meant plenty of face time with many of the missionaries she supports. These face to face gatherings are precious. PLEASE PRAY for these missionaries!

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

Nebraska Federation

Dear Friend of Life,

We have a problem! A HUGE problem! A GREAT problem! A WONDERFUL problem!
...And we need your help!

Our Concordia University in Seward has an active pro-life organization affiliated with Y4Life, the youth division of Lutherans for Life. Bulldogs4Life continues to grow and is an actively-engaged, Gospel-motivated voice for life on Concordia's campus and in the community.

As the Nebraska State Federation for Lutherans for Life, our desire is to equip and encourage these young men and women to uphold God's gift of life in this culture of death. To accomplish this, we are offering a $200 scholarship to any student at Concordia, Seward, who desires to attend the Y4Life Conference in Washington, D.C., to be held January 18-20, 2024, in conjunction with the March for Life.

The response to this scholarship has been tremendous! There are 107 students from Concordia, Seward who have signed up to attend! This number represents almost ten percent of the entire undergraduate student body. Thanks be to God for all these young people who are committed to LIFE! Even with our $200 scholarship, each of these students is paying a significant amount for airfare, hotel, and food to attend.

But this leads to our "problem" and why we need your help! We were not expecting this many Concordia students to register for the Y4Life conference. To provide each Concordia attendee with $200 we need $21,400 in scholarship funds before November 15, 2023. On behalf of the Nebraska Federation of LFL, I am asking for your prayerful support and promotion of this endeavor in any of the following ways:

- Sponsor one or more students with a gift of $200 per student.
- Share this information with your pro-life family and friends inviting them to support pro-life Concordia students.
- Promote this opportunity in your congregation and organizations within your congregation. A sample bulletin announcement can be found below.

If you and others choose to financially sponsor one or more students, please make your tax-deductible gift to Lutherans for Life, earmarking it for Bulldogs4Life. Please mail your gift to LFL at 1101 Fifth Street, Nevada, Iowa 50201. If donations exceed $21,400, gifts will remain in a restricted fund to provide scholarships to Concordia, Seward, students to attend future Y4Life Conferences. To find out more about Y4Life, please visit y4life.org

I want to thank you in advance for your prayerful consideration and support of this unique opportunity. These Concordia students are the next generation of voices for the sanctity of life in our churches, communities, and nation. I am confident that their attendance at our Y4Life Conference in Washington, D.C., will encourage, strengthen, and empower their Gospel witness for life and to the God who is the Creator and Redeemer of all Life!
