No tapping of keyboards, no buzzing of screens

Since 7pm they've been at the Coppid Beech Hotel
Prancing and dancing and laughing as well
They've chosen their food using this handy link
And they're swapping their tokens for something to drink

All dressed to impress, the mistletoe's hung
Crackers are pulled, everyone's having fun
Volume and MRP, sponsors of the night,
Let out a festive cheer of delight

It's getting late now, but no one wants to leave
Those feet could keep moving until Christmas Eve!
The party continues as the team goes along
To the Apres Ski club, where the music plays on...
