Cambodia- Cambodia Sustainable Livelihood for Indigenous Communities Project

GENERAL PROCUREMENT NOTICE

JSDF Grant No.: TFB6238

Project ID No.: P174951

The Analyzing Development Issues Centre (ADIC) has received grant financing in amount of US$ 2.75 equivalent from the World Bank toward the cost of the Cambodia Sustainable Livelihood for Indigenous Communities (CSLICP's Project), and it intends to apply part of the proceeds to payments for goods, works, non-consulting services and consulting services to be procured under this project.

Project Development Objective and Components of the Cambodia Sustainable Livelihood for Indigenous Communities (CSLICP).

The objective of the CSLICP is to improve the livelihoods of the targeted indigenous communities in the provinces of Ratanakiri and Mondulakiri, through innovative farming practices, complemented by off-farm and non-farm activities. These communities are also beneficiaries of the LASED III project. The JSDF intervention will generate new and sustainable sources of incomes for project beneficiaries through the development of a lucrative horticulture value chain, the emergence of a local agri-processing industry, and ecotourism services. The CSLICP has 3 main components.

Component 1. Livelihood support through innovative horticulture-based farming practices and technical training for off-farm and non-farm activities.

- 1.1) Introduction of new improved horticulture production practices for community farmers through farmer-managed demonstration farms;
- 1.2) provision of environmentally sustainable water solutions for agriculture and adaptation to climate change;
- 1.3) setting Up School Bio-Gardens for Capacity Development of Students; Community-Based Vocational Training for Youth;
- 1.4) Community-Based Vocational Training for Youth.

Component 2: Improving Producer Links to Markets and Horticulture Support Services;

Component 3: Project Management and Administration, Monitoring and Evaluation, and Knowledge Dissemination.
