VERSE 1:

Lord open my eyes
Open my heart, I'm listening
You're never silent
Indifferent or far, You're with me
I know You're here, so let me hear

CHORUS 1:

When You speak, mountains take their root in the sea
When You breathe, the wind of Heaven stirs up what's dead
When You sing, You sing a song of joy over me
When You speak, You speak a better word

VERSE 2:

Voice of my Father,
Stirring my heart, I'm listening
I will not fear when
Surrounded by dark, You're with me
I know You're here, so let me hear

CHORUS 2:

When You speak, mountains take their root in the sea
When You breathe, the wind of Heaven stirs up what's dead
When You sing, You sing a song of joy over me
When You speak, You speak a better word
Jesus please, come speak a better word

BRIDGE 1:

Sin says that he has claim on me
You say rise up, it is finished
Shame says Your blood it was not enough
But You say rise up, it is finished

---

BRIDGE 2:

You say I am chosen, accepted and free
When You say I'm Yours, I'm forgiven
You say You love me and You'll never leave
When You say I'm Yours, I'm forgiven
You say You love me so I will believe
That when You say I'm Yours, I'm forgiven
Because You say I'm Yours
Yes, I know I am Yours
Yes, I'll always be Yours

CHORUS 3:

When You speak, mountains take their root in the sea
When You breathe, the wind of Heaven stirs up what's dead
When You sing, You sing a song of joy over me
When You speak, You speak a better word
Jesus please, come. Speak a better word
When You speak, You speak a better word
