Luke 10:25-37 | Serve the City | Ross Lester

Write (During the Sermon)

- To be for the city, we will first need to be for the _____.
- To be for the city, we will need to be people who share our _____ with others.
- To be for the city, we will need to be people who bring _____ purpose to our work.
- Because God is love, and He is worthy of our love, and in love He made all of us in His image and likeness with dignity, value, worth and purpose, and so we are to be a people who...
 - _____ His love
 - _____ His love
 - _____ His love with others

Respond (After the Sermon)

1. What are your thoughts and feelings when you see the vulnerable people here in Austin? For example, seeing people who are experiencing homelessness.

2. When was the last time you prayed for those vulnerable people groups? Take time to pray today and consider what it looks like for you and your family to love and serve those people.
