

Unleash the POWER OF ONLINE ADVERTISING With farmnewsNOW

We are Saskatchewan's daily online news and information site for everything related to the agriculture industry including research developments and the latest crop, livestock and market news. We don't just repost press releases. We dig deeper and talk directly to local producers for reaction, so you, the reader can better understand how it may affect you, your family, your money and your future. farmnewsNOW is also the go-to source for producers when it comes to farm equipment and real estate sales.

In addition to providing local news and information, farmnewsNOW features stories from other Pattison Media outlets in Western Canada. That keeps our readers informed and expands the reach of your potential clients!

Let us bring customers to you! Advertise with farmnewsNOW.com.
