

Renovating a historic.

A 1954 neo-classical wing of a historic church (built in 1930 designed by John Russel Pope) will be renovated with a floor and a half addition on top of the existing building. The building will be converted for office use.