

Cisco DNA Health Check Service

Overview

The Cisco DNA (Digital Network Architecture) Health Check Service is designed to provide customers with an expert-level view on their existing DNA environment, and how the network is performing to support their business requirements and most critical use cases. It helps identify gaps and provides recommendations to help remediate issues to ensure the network is fully optimized.

Discovery

- Conduct workshop with customer to understand requirements.
- Information Gathering
  - Assessment of the existing DNA environment.
  - Real time analysis of DNA Dashboard.
  - DNA Center Infra Health and Assurance Health.
  - DNAC Integrations with external devices.
- Review collected data and document findings.
  - Identify gaps and improvements.

Recommendations

- Provide feedback and recommendations on:
  - Configuration and Dashboard.
  - DNA Center Assurance.
  - DNA Center Integrations.
- Identify areas of improvement and overall optimization of Cisco DNA environment.
- Review Cisco DNA features that can help address new business requirements.

Deliverables

- Executive Summary Presentation
- Health Check Review Report
- Findings and Recommendations Document

Award-Winning SDx and Cloud Solution Provider

About Netnology

Netnology brings a proven approach to building and managing application-rich complex software defined, cloud and full-stack observability environments leveraging years of industry experience working with large scale multi-vendor networks. We help enterprises and service providers reduce time from concept to value through our software and services.