Here's a little bit about your technician...

Brett Henson enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter. They especially love to travel. Recently, they had a wonderful time exploring the Caribbean, and next on their travel wish list is Croatia. Their 8-year-old daughter is an avid competitive swimmer, who recently qualified for the State Swim Meet. When they aren't poolside cheering her on, they spend their free time hiking and backpacking.

Brett is a highly skilled craftsman with 27 years of experience. He has training and experience in many areas. He is talented at tackling home improvement projects, repairs and installations. Customers consistently request his expertise for their drywall, finish carpentry, woodworking, and cabinetry needs.

Our unique approach is reason for optimism, as is our integrity. We look forward to working with you and hope you enjoyed getting to know your craftsman, Brett Henson.
