

MASTER OF ARTS IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

The Master Degree in Hospitality Management is a graduate program envisioned to shape professionals and executives to hold high-level managerial positions in the hospitality, culinary, tourism and restaurant fields. This program will allow graduates to be prepared to deal with managerial and strategic challenges presented by the changing environment of this dynamic industry.

This graduate program will challenge students to build relevant skills to enhance effective decision-making. Students will gain the necessary knowledge and expertise for the hotels, resorts, restaurants, casinos and cruise ship industry. They will attain the capacity to run an organization efficiently and also the option to specialize in Gastronomy and Restaurant Management.

SPECIALIZATION IN GASTRONOMY AND RESTAURANT MANAGEMENT

MASTER OF ARTS IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM OF STUDY SPECIALIZATION IN GASTRONOMY AND RESTAURANT MANAGEMENT

COURSE NUMBER	COURSE TITLE	CREDIT HOURS
SEMESTER 1
HF 50000	Hospitality Business Management	3
HF 50100	Hospitality Legal Issues and Ethics	3
HF 50200	Hospitality Marketing Management	3
SEMESTER 2
HF 50300	Guest Service and Consumer Management	3
HF 50400	Hospitality Finance Revenue Management	3
HF 50500	Financial Investment Management	3
SEMESTER 3
HF 50600	Operations Management	3
HF 60500	Understanding Food: History and Study of Cuisines	3
HF 60600	Restaurant Management and Development	3
SEMESTER 4
HF 60700	Food Nutrition and Diet	3
HF 60800	Sustainable Purchasing and Controlling Costs	3
HF 60900	Event Management	3
TOTAL CREDITS		36

www.sanignaciouniversity.edu

+1 (305) 6292929

3905 NW 107th Avenue,
Suite 301 Doral, FL 33178

admissions@sanignaciouniversity.edu

/sanignaciouniversity

@siuniversity

/sanignaciouniversity