

Self-collection can make cervical screening easier for some people.
Talk to your patients about this option.

Self-collection is a safe and reliable option that can remove some barriers for many women and people with a cervix aged 25 to 74 and increase the participation of cervical screening. If you'd like to know more, visit atyourcervix.org.au/health-professionals